

TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four double-spaced typed copies. (If computer generated, they should be letter quality or near letter quality. Continuous form sheets must be separated.) Notes and block quotations should be double-spaced; notes should be placed at the end of the manuscript and not at the bottoms of pages. Library of Congress transliteration for quotations for fewer than 50 words and the Chicago Manual of Style are to be followed. In general, articles should not exceed 25 typed pages 8½" by 11" in dimension—including endnotes.

Manuscripts are sent to outside readers in anonymous form and should be prepared accordingly.

The policy of Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts will be sent a membership application; please see the inside front cover for information on membership.

Monographs

This project is based on the extensive holdings of Radio Free Europe in Munich and the Polish Library POSK in London. About twenty other libraries in the USA, England, France and Italy supplied many lacking issues. A unique primary source materials representing a very wide range of opposition and dissident periodicals up to 1988, the year in which many oppositional publications started to appear more or less openly.

Titles include not only complete serials of known national periodicals such as Tygodnik Mazowsze and KOS, but also many clandestine publications of all kinds: bulletins and leaflets originating from factory, local, and regional Solidarność branches, academic and student circles, peasant organizations, political groupings, and religious and cultural groups.
