

THE ECONOMIC JOURNAL

Managing Editor: John D. Hey

The Economic Journal is pre-eminent as a general economics journal catering for the whole of the international community of economists. It is the official journal of the Royal Economic Society, available free to members, with a long and distinguished history and a proud record of fostering communication amongst economists. It publishes articles, notes, book reviews and book notes across the broad spectrum of economics, covering both theoretical and empirical aspects, and it aims to encourage the dissemination of new ideas and new results across specialist divisions both within economics and between economics and other disciplines. A recent new development is the publication of regular, specially commissioned survey articles.

Recent articles include:

Commodity agreements and commodity markets: lessons from tin
RONALD W. ANDERSON and CHRISTOPHER L. GILBERT

Patents, priority and imitation or, the economics of races and waiting games
PARTHA DASGUPTA

The persistence of profits: a European comparison
PAUL A. GEROSKI and ALEX JACQUEMIN

The economics of committees
RAAJ KUMAR SAH and JOSEPH E. STIGLITZ

Important Journals from Cambridge

Economic Policy

Editors: Georges de Menil and Richard Portes

Published on behalf of the Centre for Economic Policy Research and La Maison des Sciences de l'Homme, Economic Policy offers a uniquely independent, non-partisan European forum for analysis of topical issues in economics. Articles are commissioned from leading international economists and policy advisers and are discussed by a panel of eminent economists whose comments in summary follow each paper. The journal discusses the entire range of macro- and microeconomic issues. Two parts per year.

Econometric Theory

Editor: Peter Phillips

Econometric Theory is an international journal dedicated to advancing theoretical research in econometrics. In addition to articles on original theoretical research, the journal publishes historical studies on the evolution of econometric thought. Each issue contains a 'Problems and Solutions' section and publishes pedagogical papers dealing with educational issues and which discuss new approaches to teaching econometrics. Three parts per year.

Economics and Philosophy

Editors: Daniel M. Hausman and Michael S. McPherson

Papers in Economics and Philosophy explore the foundations of economics as both a predictive/explanatory enterprise and a normative one. They examine the relevance of economic techniques, methods and conclusions to philosophical questions in ethics and social theory. The journal fosters collaboration between economists and philosophers and bridges the artificial boundaries between them. Two parts a year.
