
Announcements

1993 Annual Conference of the Hegel Society of Great BritainHegel's Phenomenology of Spirit: A Reappraisal

Pembroke College, Oxford

6 and 7 September 1993

Joseph Flay (Pennsylvania State University): "The Beginning of Beginnings, the Preface and Introduction to the Phenomenology"

David Duquette (St Norbert College, Wisconsin): "The Political Significance of Hegel's Concept of Recognition in the Phenomenology"

Gillian Rose (University of Warwick): "The Spirit of the Phenomenology and its Fate"

Nicholas Walker (Magdalene College, Cambridge): "The Presence of Aristotle in Hegel's Phenomenology"

H S Harris (York University, Toronto): "Let's not 'Leave out the Ethical'; a 'Conscientious' Response to S K"

Simon Jarvis (Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge): "The 'Unhappy Consciousness' and Conscious Unhappiness"

For further details, contact Dr Gary Browning, 40 Kingston Road, Central North Oxford, Oxford OX2 6RH.