

THEATRE RESEARCH INTERNATIONAL

VOLUME 12 NUMBER 3 AUTUMN 1987

Oxford University Press in association with the International Federation for Theatre Research

NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

1. Contributions should be in English. Two copies of all manuscripts should be sent to the Editor, Drama Department, University of Glasgow, Glasgow G12 8QF, Scotland.
2. Articles must be accompanied by an abstract of approximately 200 words which should be a succinct condensation of the paper.
3. Manuscripts should be typed double-spaced with wide margins.
4. Illustrations (reproducible photographs or line drawings) should be carefully labelled and captioned.
5. Footnotes must be listed at the end of the manuscript.
6. All articles will be acknowledged upon receipt. Authors will be informed of a decision within four months of receipt.
7. Manuscripts should be checked carefully before submission to avoid difficulties at the proof stage.
8. Book reviews are usually by invitation, but the editors are always ready to consider offers to undertake reviewing.
9. Twenty-five complimentary offprints of each article will be sent to authors; additional offprints are available at the author's expense. Book reviewers will receive a complimentary copy of the journal.
10. Manuscripts are accepted on the understanding that they are original contributions, unpublished and not on offer to another publication.

Note to North American Publishers

Please send your review copies directly to Professor Robert K. Sarlós, Department of Dramatic Art, University of California, DAVIS, California 95616.

Theatre Research International is the continuation of Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales. The change of title marks the assumption by Oxford University Press of responsibility for publication. The new title also indicates that the association with the International Federation for Theatre Research/Fédération Internationale pour la Recherche Théâtrale, which founded the journal, will remain. Bilingualism has not been entirely abandoned; contributions appear only in English, but articles are provided with résumés in French. The field continues to be the historical, critical and theoretical study of documentation of drama, conceived as the art of the theatre.

The motif on our cover was designed by Josef Svoboda for Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales in 1966 and presented to the International Federation for Theatre Research/Fédération Internationale pour la Recherche Théâtrale.

Theatre Research International is published three times a year, in January, May and October at a price of £33.00 (UK £26.00, N. Amer. $55.00) p.a., with single issues at £11.50 (UK £10.00, N. Amer. $20.00). All dispatches post free (by accelerated surface post to the USA, Canada and Japan). Orders should be placed with a bookseller or sent direct to Journals Subscriptions Department, Oxford University Press, Walton Street, Oxford OX2 6DP, UK.
