

• A towering reference work

• RENÉ LATOURELLE
• and RINO FISICHELLA, editors

• DICTIONARY OF
• FUNDAMENTAL THEOLOGY

• English-Language Edition edited by René Latourelle

• “Very thorough and reliable. . . it speaks to many of the most vital questions in theology today.”

• —AVERY DULLES, S.J.

• Classical apologetics (the branch of theology concerned with the “proofs” for Christianity) has undergone a “paradigm shift,” and a new discipline with its own specific character, object, and method has been born. The unifying center of the new fundamental theology is “the presence of God in the history, flesh, and language of Jesus Christ.” Flowing from that central core, this first ever Dictionary of Fundamental Theology—consisting of 221 articles under 30 major themes, written by 93 contributors representing 15 countries—addresses the following concerns: 1. Christian revelation, 2. its credibility, 3. the response of faith, 4. relations with other Christian communities and other religions, and 5. the relationship of Christian revelation to history, philosophy, the sciences, culture, and language. Includes multiple cross references and indexes.

• “Abundantly informative, thoroughly up to date, and useful to students as well as to specialists.”

• —Nouvelle Revue Theologique

• “One cannot recommend it highly enough.”—Etudes

• “I express my admiration for the impressive accomplishment.”

• —CARDINAL PIO LAGHI, Prefect of the Congregation for Catholic Education

Theology Catholic and catholic

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Roman Catholic Perspectives

Edited by FRANCIS SCHÜSSLER
FIORENZA and JOHN P. GALVIN

"For Protestants as well as Roman Catholics, these volumes are state-of-the-art systematic theology. Here for the first time the disciplinary barriers that have divided the confessions are broken through, not only in biblical or historical studies, but in dogmatics itself. Perhaps only in America could this happen. Now we can profit from each other in our own work more than ever before."

HANDBOOK OF CATHOLIC THEOLOGY

Edited by WOLFGANG BEINERT
and FRANCIS SCHUSSLER FIORENZA

This English-language edition of an essential new reference work, simultaneously published in four other languages, features original contributions written by major theologians from the United States. Everything one needs to know about Catholic theology is found in this essential and easy-to-use new handbook that is biblically and historically based, ecumenically oriented, and completely up-to-date.

Eleven major categories of theology (each a mini-course unto itself) contain more than 300 entries, and each includes a bibliography specially prepared by such prominent American theologians as: Elisabeth Johnson, C.S.J.; Anthony Godzieba; Anne M. Clifford; Joann Wolski Conn; Michael Fahey, S.J.; Peter Fink, S.J.; and Roger Haight, S.J.

Among the more than 300 entries:

- Body of Christ
- Church
- Cosmology
- Ecology
- Eucharist
- Evil
- Historical Jesus
- Incarnation
- Inspiration
- Joy
