Shakespearean Negotiations

The Circulation of Social Energy in Renaissance England

STEPHEN GREENBLATT

The leading practitioner of an innovative critical method here views Shakespeare's works in the cultural and historical context of their time. He also provides fascinating analyses of such aspects of early modern culture as exorcism, cross-dressing, colonial propaganda, and martial law codes.

£18.50

Shakespeare the Theatre-Poet

ROBERT HAPGOOD

How open to interpretation is Shakespeare? Robert Hapgood here argues that in his plays he not only outlines an imaginary world but provides guidelines for its enactment and reception.

Clarendon Press £27.50

Henry Fielding and the London Theatre
1728–1737

ROBERT D. HUME

Far from being an 'indistinguished' playwright, this book shows Fielding to have been compelled prematurely to end a career as political satirist and innovative dramatist which showed brilliant potential.

Bernhardt, Terry, Duse

The Actress in her Time

JOHN STOKES, MICHAEL R. BOOTH, SUSAN BASSNETT

Sarah Bernhardt, Ellen Terry and Eleanora Duse are three of the most celebrated actresses of the 'golden age' of the mid-nineteenth to early twentieth centuries. Their legendary stage presence was immediately mythologised in idealised poses, fictional renderings and endless gossip. Three closely linked chapters, together with a provocative introduction, photographs and prints of the actresses illuminate both their lives as well as a crucial period in theatrical history.

Myth and Its Making in the French Theatre

Studies Presented to W. D. Howarth

Edited by E. FREEMAN, H. MASON, M O'REGAN and S. W. TAYLOR

The fifteen original essays in this volume approach the theme of myth in the French theatre from a wide range of viewpoints. Ancient themes such as Thebes, Troy and Don Juan are re-examined, the use of myth to achieve effects such as irony, parody and camouflage are investigated. The subject matter extends from Garnier to Vinaver, from Corneille to Sartre.

THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R.

In all 14 volumes were published in 36 issues including a complete index. Most back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £2 ($3); per volume £4 ($6) plus postage

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes (with two issues in facsimile) are available at £50 ($75). Postage extra.
