

ART DOCUMENTATION

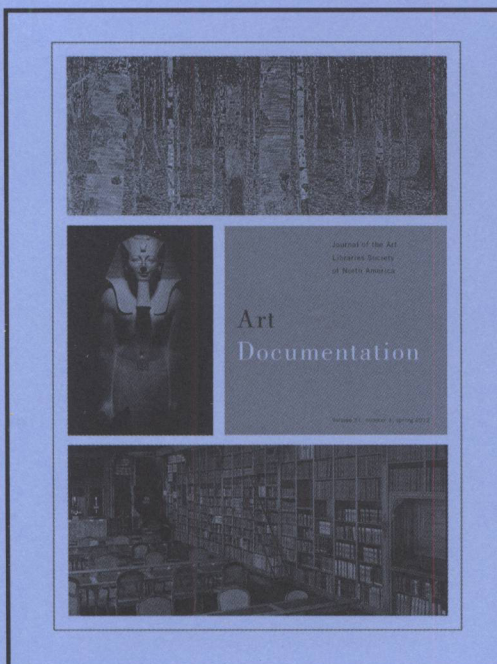

JOURNAL OF THE ART LIBRARIES SOCIETY OF NORTH AMERICA

Vital for art information librarians and visual resource curators

The official journal of the Art Libraries Society of North America, Art Documentation is a vital forum for scholarship on art and architecture librarianship, visual resources curatorship, digital image management, visual arts technology, art publishing, and related areas. The journal publishes articles relating to both the documentation of art, as well as the practice and theory of art librarianship.

Audience

Architecture and art librarians, visual resources professionals, archivists, curators, museum professionals, and historians.

Editor: Judy Dyki

Sponsor: Art Libraries Society of North America
(ARLIS/NA) www.arlisna.org

Two issues/year

Beginning spring 2012 (#31,1)

ISSN: 0730-7187

E-ISSN: 2161-9417

Individual subscriptions concurrent with membership in the Art Libraries Society of North America.

Contact ARLIS/NA directly:

ARLIS/NA

7044 South 13th Street

Oak Creek, WI 53154

Phone: (414) 908-4954 ext. 116

Fax: (414) 768-8001

arlisna.org/join.html

www.journals.uchicago.edu

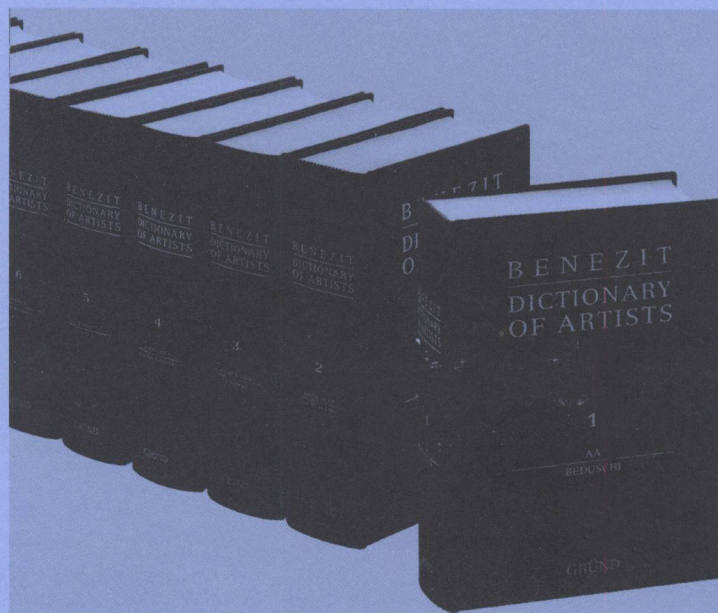

CHICAGO JOURNALS

BÉNÉZIT - DICTIONARY OF ARTISTS

SPECIAL OFFER FOR THE 14 VOLUMES

£600, INCLUDING CARRIAGE TO THE UK

LIST PRICE AT OUP- ISBN 978-0-19-977378-7. £1,850.00

Oxford University Press has taken over distribution of the English language edition of Bénézit. Dictionary of Artists, from the original publisher, Editions Gründ of Paris (formerly ISBN 2-7000-3070-2).

We were able to purchase a quantity before the sale to Oxford and can offer the same edition for £600. Each of the 14 cloth bound volumes is individually boxed.

- 14 volumes with 20,608 pages. Cloth bound and individually boxed.
- First and only English language edition, published in 2006.
- Biographies of 170,000 artists with 11,000 signatures and initials.
- Likely to be the last printed edition.
- Subject to change and stock on hand. Trades with libraries considered.

Wittenborn Art Books www.art-books.com order@art-books.com