COMANDANTE CHE GUERRILLA SOLDIER, COMMANDER, AND STRATEGIST, 1956-1967

Paul J. Dosal

"Just when you thought there couldn't possibly be more to say about Che Guevara along comes Paul J. Dosal with yet another book, a good one, in fact. . . . He does not pretend to deal with Guevara's personal life or his career as a bureaucrat in Cuba, but despite those deliberate omissions, if one could read only a single book about Guevara, this would not be a bad choice."

How To Comply With The New Copyright Law

Libraries everywhere have found the easy way to fill photocopy requests legally and instantly, without the need to seek permissions, from this and over 3000 other key publications in business, science, humanities, and social science.

Participation in the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) assures you of legal photocopying at the moment of need. You can:

Fill requests for multiple copies, interlibrary loan (beyond the CONTU guidelines), and reserve desk without fear of copyright infringement.

Supply copies simply and easily from registered publications. The CCC's flexible reporting system accepts photocopying reports and returns an itemized invoice. You need not keep any records, our computer will do it for you.

The Copyright Clearance Center is your one-stop place for on-the-spot clearance to photocopy for internal use. You will never have to decline a photocopy request or wonder about compliance with the law for any publication registered with the CCC.

EARLY SPANISH AMERICAN NARRATIVE

BY NAOMI LINDSTROM

This book offers an authoritative survey of four centuries of Spanish American narrative beginning with Amerindian narratives and moving forward chronologically through the conquest and colonial eras, the wars for independence, and the nineteenth century. Lindstrom's inclusion of women and Amerindian authors, who have been downplayed in other surveys, makes it especially useful for students and professors.

THE SOCIAL CONSCIENCE OF LATIN AMERICAN WRITING

BY NAOMI LINDSTROM

In this comprehensive survey of research and opinion by leading Latin American cultural and literary critics, Naomi Lindstrom examines five concepts that are currently the focus of intense debate among Latin American writers and thinkers — autonomy and dependency, postmodernism, literary intellectuals and the mass media, testimonial literature, and gender issues, including gay and lesbian themes.

APPLE PIE AND ENCHILADAS
LATINO NEWCOMERS IN THE RURAL MIDWEST
 BY ANN V. MILLARD AND JORGE CHAPA, ET AL.

Due to a sudden influx of significant numbers of Latinos to the region, the rural Midwest has become the scene of dramatic social and economic change. This is the first volume to focus comprehensively on Latinos in the Midwest by linking demographic and qualitative analysis to describe what brings Latinos to the area and how they are being accommodated in their new communities.

ANCIENT MAYA COMMONERS
 EDITED BY JON C. LOHSE AND FRED VALDEZ, JR.

This pathfinding book marshals a wide array of archaeological, ethnohistorical, and ethnographic evidence to offer the fullest understanding to date of the lifeways of ancient Maya commoners. Senior and emerging scholars contribute case studies that examine aspects of commoner life. Their reports help resolve Maya commoners from a faceless mass into individual actors on whom the whole Maya society depended.

MAYAS IN THE MARKETPLACE
TOURISM, GLOBALIZATION, AND CULTURAL IDENTITY
 BY WALTER E. LITTLE

Selling handicrafts to tourists has brought the Maya peoples of Guatemala into the world market. Drawing on over a decade of fieldwork, Walter Little presents the first ethnographic study of Maya handicraft vendors in the international marketplace. He demonstrates that the Maya are maintaining a specific, community-based sense of Maya identity, even as they commodify their culture for tourist consumption in the world market.

CREOLE ECONOMICS CARIBBEAN CUNNING UNDER THE FRENCH FLAG
By KATHLRINE E. BROWNE

In this innovative study, Browne draws on anthropological and ethnographic data to argue that the informal economy in the French Caribbean island of Martinique is not the product of economic factors alone. The author shows how methods of operating under-the-radar have been reinforced since the days of slavery and that informal economies and illicit entrepreneurship occur not in spite of French economic and political control, but rather because of it.

FAMILY AND FRONTIER IN COLONIAL BRAZIL
SANTANA DE PARNAÍBA, 1580—1822
By ALIDA C. METCALF

"This is an exciting book, indeed a pathbreaking book, for it opens new vistas in the history of colonial Latin America. . . . Metcalf skillfully uses the history of one frontier region to illuminate the history of southern Brazil. . . . She masterfully links her region to the general growth and development of the Portuguese colony thereby demonstrating the strengths which local history, case study, demography, and quantitative techniques can make. This is an outstanding contribution to frontier history, family history, and the social history of rural zones."

WORDS OF THE TRUE PEOPLES
ANTHOLOGY OF CONTEMPORARY
MEXICAN INDIGENOUS-LANGUAGE
WRITERS • VOL. 1: PROSE
EDITED BY CARLOS MONTEMAYOR
AND DONALD FRISCHMANN

As part of the larger movement throughout Latin America to reclaim non-Hispanic cultural heritages, indigenous writers in Mexico are reappropriating the written word in their ancestral tongues and in Spanish. This groundbreaking anthology—to be published in three volumes over the coming years—gathers works by the leading generation of writers in thirteen Mexican indigenous languages. Each piece appears in its ancestral language and is translated into Spanish and English.

LATIN AMERICAN PERSPECTIVES

A Journal on Capitalism and Socialism

Managing Editor
Ronald H. Chilcote
University of California, Riverside

Join a forum for discussion and debate on the political economy of capitalism, imperialism, and socialism in the Americas. A theoretical and scholarly journal, Latin American Perspectives provides you with an in-depth look from participants and scholars throughout the Americas, with issues frequently focusing on a single problem, nation, or region.

LAP offers a vital multidisciplinary view of the powerful forces shaping the Americas, such as:

- Economics – and the study of the moral, political and social desirability of economic policies
- Political Science – and the patterns of social action that underlie the operation of nations, the competition for power, and the conduct and misconduct of governments
- International Relations – particularly as they affect the nationalist movements and internal problems of Latin American countries
- Philosophy – theoretical and applied to the hard realities of developing nations
- History – a critical view, with frequent inside views of history in the making
- Geography – the environmental condition, ecology, and exploitation of resources
- Sociology – organized groups, social institutions, and the new social movements, including feminism, ecology, and urban and rural labor
- Anthropology – the culture, ethnicity, and resistance of peoples of the region
- Literature – the personal poetic comments of activists and revolutionary scholars small axe

a caribbean journal of criticism

Small Axe focuses on the renewal of the practices of intellectual criticism in the Caribbean and includes fiction, nonfiction, poetry, interviews, visual art and reviews. Small Axe recognizes the tradition of social, political, and cultural criticism in and about the regional and diasporic Caribbean, and honors that tradition. Small Axe provides a forum for rethinking many of the conceptions that guided the formation of Caribbean modernities and an informed and sustained debate about the present, its political and cultural contours, its historical conditions and global context, and the critical languages in which change can be thought and alternatives re-imagined.

Building a bigger, better MUSE

The online collection of scholarly journals in Project MUSE[®] now includes the full text of more than 200 titles, published by more than 40 not-for-profit presses! By merging these titles into a single database, MUSE provides scholars with the critical content they need, combined with all of the benefits of electronic subscriptions, including full-text and field searching, easy navigation, and full campus availability 24 hours a day. With our expanded list, faster servers and increased searching options, research has never been easier.

Check our list at http://muse.jhu.edu/proj_descrip/subscribed.html to see if your institution subscribes to Project MUSE journals online. Researchers at subscribing institutions may expect to access MUSE from any computer on the campus network.

If your institution does not currently offer you access to MUSE, ask your campus library to contact us about our many flexible subscription options! Email muse@muse.jhu.edu for more information.

MUSE now offers peer-reviewed full-text journals in the following subject fields:

African studies	Gay and lesbian studies	Native American studies

Instructions to Authors: See LARR home page for submission information (<http://larr.lanic.utexas.edu/>). Address all correspondence to the Executive Editor, Latin American Research Review, LARR Editorial Office, 1 University Station, D0800, Austin, TX 78712-0331. Manuscripts should be unpublished in any language and should not be under consideration for publication by any other journal. Please submit two dark, clear copies of your manuscript on 8 1/2" x 11" paper. All material should be typed double-spaced, with notes separately at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts should not exceed 10,000 words, including references, notes and tables/figures. Please provide a word count including footnotes, endnotes and references. Papers that significantly exceed the 10,000-word limit will not be considered for review. Tables and figurative material should be kept to a minimum. Each page should be counted as the equivalent of 250 words to be included in the overall word count. Include an abstract of not more than 250 words. For all matters of style, especially format for notes and bibliographies, please consult the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press).

LARR is published three times a year, Spring/Summer/Fall by the University of Texas Press. All views or conclusions are those of the authors of the articles and not necessarily those of the editors, the University of Texas Press, The University of Texas at Austin, or The University of Texas System.

The LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW is the official journal of the Latin American Studies Association and is published to achieve greater and more systematic communication among individuals, institutions, and organizations concerned with scholarly studies and knowledge production relating to Latin America.

The LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW was founded with the support of contributions from a number of sponsoring institutions acknowledged in LARR in past issues, and from a supplementary grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation (for LARR-on-Line).

Membership in the Latin American Studies Association includes a subscription to the LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW. Dues for calendar year 2005 and three-year rates are listed below. Checks for membership should be made payable to LASA and sent to LASA, 946 William Pitt Union, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260. Payment may be in the form of a check in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. bank, a money order in U.S. dollars, a UNESCO coupon, or a traveler's check in U.S. dollars with signatures on both lines made out to LASA. LASA also accepts Visa and MasterCard. Telephone LASA (412) 648-7929; Fax (412) 624-7145; E-mail lasa@pitt.edu
