

CORRIGENDUM

Processes of academisation in higher music education: The case of Sweden – CORRIGENDUM

K. Johansson and E. Georgii-Hemming

<https://doi.org/10.1017/S0265051720000339>, Published by Cambridge University Press, 21 December 2020.

Keywords: Higher music education; academisation; artistic research; the music profession; corrigendum

In the original version of this article a citation was incorrectly listed for one mentioned article. The authors wish to identify the following:

1 IN THE TEXT

Under the heading Educating the professional musician of tomorrow, third section, third line STANDS

... for insecure futures in professional musical life (Georgii-Hemming & Johansson, 2020; Carey, Harrison, & Dwyer, 2017)

SHOULD BE

... for insecure futures in professional musical life (Georgii-Hemming, Johansson & Moberg, 2020; Carey, Harrison, & Dwyer, 2017)

2 IN THE REFERENCE LIST

STANDS

Georgii-Hemming, E. & Johansson, K. (2020). Reflection in higher music education: what, why, wherefore? Music Education Research, 22(3), 245–256. DOI: 10.1080/14613808.2020.1766006

SHOULD BE

Georgii-Hemming, E., Johansson, K. & Moberg, N. (2020). Reflection in higher music education: what, why, wherefore? Music Education Research, 22(3), 245–256. DOI: 10.1080/14613808.2020.1766006

Reference

Johansson, K., & Georgii-Hemming, E. (2020). Processes of academisation in higher music education: The case of Sweden. British Journal of Music Education, 1-14. doi: 10.1017/S0265051720000339