The Journal of Hygiene

The Journal of Hygiene publishes reports of research and original findings in subjects related to hygiene, preventive and social medicine. The field covered is broad and includes infection, microbiology, virology, immunity, epidemiology, food hygiene, sanitary bacteriology, statistics and the clinical and social aspects of disease.

Infection is defined in the widest sense and is concerned with the control of infectious disease in the community and within institutions and includes medical microbiology, clinical immunology, epidemiology, and the laboratory and clinical aspects of antimicrobial chemotherapy.

Papers for publication should be sent to the Editor, Department of Medical Microbiology, King's College Hospital Medical School, Denmark Hill, London SE5 8RX. Three copies should be submitted. Papers forwarded to the Editor for publication are understood to be offered to The Journal of Hygiene alone, unless the contrary is stated.

Contributors receive twenty-five copies of their paper free. Additional copies may be purchased; these should be ordered when the final proof is returned.
