"Discussions of American Legal Realism as a movement in legal thought are numerous, but seldom enlightening. Wouter de Been's Legal Realism Revisited is a notable exception. His patient reconstruction of the topic is a model of the intellectual historian's craft."

To Enlarge the Machinery of Government

Congressional Debates and the Growth of the American State, 1858–1891

William James Hull Hoffer

Through close readings of debates centered around sponsorship, supervision, and standardization recorded in the Congressional Globe and Congressional Record, William James Hull Hoffer traces a critical shift in ideas that ultimately ushered in Progressive legislation: the willingness of American citizens to allow, and in fact ask for, federal intervention in their daily lives.

“A substantial contribution to the burgeoning fields of political development in political science and policy studies in history.”—Joel H. Silbey, author of The American Political Nation, 1838–1893

How Free Can the Press Be?
RANDALL P. BEZANSON

“An intelligent discussion of real constitutional issues affecting the press and journalism in the United States.”

—Library Journal

“Bezanson raises some unexpected questions and provides some provocative insights. Bezanson’s analyses of the arguments are . . . clear, well-reasoned and thorough.”—American Journalism

“Thought-provoking.”—Military Review

Law and History Review

Law and History Review (ISSN 0738-2480) is published three times a year, in spring, summer, and fall, by the University of Illinois Press for the American Society for Legal History. The purpose of the Review is to further research and writing in the fields of the social history of law and the history of legal ideas and institutions. The Review is sent to all members of the American Society for Legal History. Information about membership in the Society appears on the inside back cover of this issue.

Address all business inquiries (subscriptions, membership applications, back-issue orders, advertisements, and change-of-address notices) to the Journals Department, University of Illinois Press, 1325 South Oak Street, Champaign, Illinois 61820-6975. Requests for replacement of damaged or undelivered issues will be honored for up to six months after publication of the issue.

Back issues of Law and History Review may be ordered directly from William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 1285 Main Street, Buffalo, New York 14209-1987. Orders may also be placed by calling Hein at (800) 828-7571, via fax at (716) 883-8100, or email to order@wshein.com. Back issues can also be found in electronic format for all your research needs on HeinOnline <http://heinonline.org/>.

For authorization to photocopy from Law and History Review for uses exceeding those permitted by Sections 107 and 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law, contact the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC), 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923. The CCC will send an invoice for permissions fees. Permissions given above do not extend to copying for advertising or promotional purposes or to creating new collective works.

Note to Contributors

The editors welcome unsolicited manuscripts and books for review. Authors should submit their manuscripts on-line at <http://lhr.law.unlv.edu>. Step-by-step instructions on the website explain the submission process. Address all general editorial correspondence to David S. Tanenhaus, Editor, Law and History Review, Department of History, University of Nevada, Las Vegas, 4505 Maryland Parkway, Las Vegas, NV 89154-5020 (tel 702 895 3549; fax 702 895 1782; e-mail david.tanenhaus@unlv.edu). Address books for review and correspondence regarding book reviews and reviewing on the Americas to Alfred L. Brophy, Associate Editor, Law and History Review, University of Alabama, 101 Bryant Drive East, Box 870382, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-0382 (tel 205 348 0841; fax 205 348 5829; e-mail: abrophy@law.ua.edu). Address books for review and correspondence regarding book reviews and reviewing on the non-Americas to Amalia D. Kessler, Associate Editor, Law and History Review, Stanford Law School, 559 Nathan Abbott Way, Stanford, CA 94305-8610 (tel 650 725 5800; fax 650 725 0253; e-mail: akessler@law.stanford.edu). Manuscripts must be double-spaced typescript throughout, with citations prepared according to the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed. The Review's style guides for articles and book reviews are available on the LHR web page at <http://lhr.law.unlv.edu>. Please use word processing. Submitted manuscripts are subject to double-blind peer review; authors should therefore identify themselves on the title page only. Accepted manuscripts are copyedited for style but not substance; authors remain responsible for citation accuracy and for all statements of fact or opinion. The Law and History Review will not consider any manuscript concurrently submitted for publication elsewhere. Submission of a manuscript is understood to commit its author to publish the manuscript in the Law and History Review if accepted by the editor.
