SETTING THE STANDARD IN ONLINE LEGAL RESEARCH

Max Planck Encyclopedia of International Procedural Law

The home of international law in practice

NEW ONLINE SERVICE

Available as part of the Max Planck Encyclopedias of International Law

GENERAL EDITOR

Professor H el ene Ruiz Fabri, Director of the Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for Procedural Law

The Max Planck Encyclopedia of International Procedural Law (MPEiPro) maps and analyzes the systems and processes through which international law is made, interpreted, and adjudicated in practice. It takes a broad view of international procedure, examining it from three different angles: technical points of procedure within specific institutions or across similar organizations; comparative accounts of families of institutions within specific subject areas or with similar functions; and theoretical, interdisciplinary entries.

International Law at Iowa

For the past 40 years, Iowa Law has had an International and Comparative Law Program. We offer the Advanced Standing JD, LL.M., S.J.D., as well as the traditional three-year JD. In any given year, nearly ten percent of our students are from outside the United States, and we host numerous international scholars for the semester or the year. Our library, one of the largest in an American law school, has over 1.4 million titles and continues to grow. Nearly one-third of our faculty are involved in the field of International and Comparative Law.

INTERNATIONAL LAW AT M LAW

For nearly two centuries, Michigan Law has been an influential leader in international and comparative law. Here are some of the marks we've made:

- 1890 began our LLM program
- 1952 founded the American Journal of Comparative Law
- 1990 founded the European Journal of International Law
- 2001 became the first US law school to require an international law course for the JD degree
- 2017 developed the first 3-month master's degree in Advanced Corporation Law

Michigan Law is leading the way—past, present, and future.
