NOTICE to CNSF Members and CJNS Journal Subscribers

Due to significant cutbacks in advertising revenue, the 2013 May and November issues of the Journal will now appear exclusively online, in full color.

CNSF Members still access Journal articles by logging on through the CNSF Members Centre.

Journal Subscribers still access all CJNS Journal articles through CJNS.org

This action is necessary in order to preserve the viability and financial stability of the Journal and we will continue to provide a relevant and important peer reviewed publication on the neurosciences.

For further information or assistance please contact journal@cjns.org or call 403-229-9575.

What does it mean to you?
