Philosophy of Perspectives on Politics

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

A full-length copy of the journal's editorial philosophy appears in Perspectives on Politics 8(1): 7–10 and also on the web at <https://www.apsanet.org/perspectivesubmissions>.

Submission and Review

For submission guidelines, please see <https://www.apsanet.org/perspectivesubmissions>.

Our editorial team discusses all submissions. Those that seem promising are evaluated by several external reviewers—with full confidentiality on both sides—and then accepted, returned for further revisions, or declined with suggestions of more appropriate venues for publication.

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 12,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to deepen our understanding of politics, democracy, and citizenship throughout the world.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing four distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, PS: Political Science & Politics, and the Journal of Political Science Education.

June 22, 1922. Washington, DC. Several thousand African-Americans marched silently in support of an anti-lynching bill. Such legislation was introduced over 200 times in the first half of the twentieth century. To date the United States has still not passed an anti-lynching bill. The most recent draft, the Emmett Till Antilynching Act, was passed by the House of Representatives but failed to pass in the Senate by unanimous consent in June 2020.
