

BRITISH STUDIES

D. H. Lawrence's "Lady"

A New Look at *Lady
Chatterley's Lover*

Edited by Michael Squires and Dennis Jackson

In these original essays, thirteen critics defend Lawrence's often-derided "Lady" as a work of major social, intellectual, and literary importance—a work that has centrally shaped our culture. $24.00

Shadows of the Past in Contemporary British Fiction

David Leon Higdon

Illuminating contemporary British literature's search for a new center of gravity, David Leon Higdon discusses the many British writers who have disinterred the past to meet the complexities of the present. $22.50

The Reign of Elizabeth I

Edited by Christopher Haigh

The Reign of Elizabeth I offers a current assessment of the scholarly controversies—religious and political, domestic and foreign—which mark the terrain of England's most vital epoch. $27.50

The Letters of Hugh MacDiarmid

Edited by Alan Bold

Witty and intimate, these letters reveal the many facets of one of Scotland's greatest writers, reflecting both MacDiarmid's combative political career and his relations with such figures as T. S. Eliot and Ezra Pound. $30.00
Illustrated

Samuel Johnson and the Sense of History

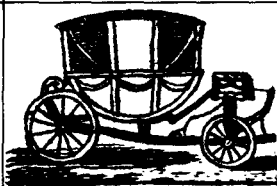

John A. Vance

John A. Vance examines biographical evidence, correspondence, and especially Samuel Johnson's own works to reveal that few misconceptions about the writer have been so glaring as his supposed dislike of history. $22.50

Henry James and the Problem of Robert Browning

Ross Posnock

Ross Posnock's study traces James's troubled admiration for Robert Browning, a poet whose mastery of both literature and women profoundly shook the young novelist's belief that great art requires sexual renunciation. $24.00

Coach

Sugar Loafs

Buck

Can

Hound

Crown

The Life and Work of Thomas Hardy

Thomas Hardy

Edited by Michael Millgate

Correcting the well-intentioned but misguided tampering of Florence Hardy and her advisors, Michael Millgate presents Thomas Hardy's own version of his life and achievements as he wanted them to be remembered. $35.00

Fantasy and Reason Children's Literature in the Eighteenth Century

Geoffrey Summerfield

Tracing the rehabilitation of fantasy in the eighteenth century, Geoffrey Summerfield reveals the persistence of the imagination in children's literature during an age committed to reason, moderation, and science. $30.00

Pageantry in the Shakespearean Theater

Edited by David M. Bergeron

In these essays, scholars including Stephen Orgel, Gordon Kipling, and Michael Neill explore the interconnectedness of pageant, masque, and theater in the works of Ben Jonson, Thomas Middleton, and William Shakespeare. $26.00

The Poet and the City

A Study in Urban Perspectives

John H. Johnston

In this first large-scale study of British and American urban poetry, John H. Johnston traces the gradual confluence of the poetic imagination with the stimulating, often discordant textures of city life. $25.00

The Archaeology of Medieval England and Wales

John Steane

Working from the rich archaeological record of England and Wales, John Steane reveals the material life of a society that has been known mostly from historical and archival accounts. $27.50 Illustrated

The University of Georgia Press

Athens, Georgia 30602

From St. Martin's Scholarly

The Breadstealers

The Fight Against the Corn Laws, 1838-1846

Norman Longmate

1984 ISBN 0-312-09511-2 270 pp.

$25.00

Britain and the Armenian Question 1915-1923

Akaby Nassibian

1984 ISBN 0-312-09809-X 294 pp.

$30.00

Urban Disease and Mortality in Nine- teenth Century England

edited by Robert Woods and John Woodward

1984 ISBN 0-312-83434-9 256 pp.

$27.50

Brush Fire Wars

Minor Campaigns of the British Army Since 1945

Michael Dewar

1984 ISBN 0-312-10674-2 208 pp.

$22.50

British Imperialism in the Nineteenth Century

edited by Colin C. Eldridge

1984 ISBN 0-312-10299-2 214 pp.

$29.95

The Royal Historical Society Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History

Publications of 1983

edited by

Geoffrey R. Elton

1984 ISBN 0-312-69472-5 180 pp.

$29.95

Gladstone, Politics and Religion

A Collection of Founder's Day Lectures Delivered at St. Deiniol's Library,
Hawarden 1967-1983

edited by Peter J. Jagger

1985 ISBN 0-312-32763-3 183 pp.

$22.50

Two Diaries of the Long Parliament

edited by Maija Jansson

1985 ISBN 0-312-82681-8 152 pp.

$22.50

Politics of British Foreign Policy in the Era of Disraeli and Gladstone

Marvin Swartz

1985 ISBN 0-312-62645-2 220 pp.

$27.50

New Titles in British Studies

Land and Property

The English Land Tax
1692-1832

edited by Michael Turner and Dennis Mills

1985 ISBN 0-312-46436-3 200 pp.
$25.00

Britain in the Age of Walpole

edited by Jeremy Black

1985 ISBN 0-312-09826-X 260 pp.
$27.95

Gladstone's Boswell

Late Victorian Conversations

edited by Asa Briggs

1984 ISBN 0-312-32766-8 229 pp.
$25.00

The Last Popular Rebellion

The Western Rising of 1685

Robin Clifton

1984 ISBN 0-312-47123-8 308 pp.
$27.50

Sources of British Political History, 1900-1951

Volume 6 (Consolidated)

compiled by Chris Cook

The first complete listing of public and private archives and repositories.
1985 ISBN 0-312-74659-8 256 pp.
$32.50

Statesmen and Politicians of the Stuart Age

edited by Timothy Eustace

1985 ISBN 0-312-75729-8 224 pp.
$27.50

Rural Life in England in the First World War

Pamela Horn

1985 ISBN 0-312-69604-3 300 pp.
$30.00

The Quakers and the English Revolution

Barry Reay

Foreword by

Christopher Hill

1985 ISBN 0-312-65808-7 200 pp.
$22.50

“Bomber” Harris and the Strategic Bombing Offensive, 1939-1945

Charles Messenger

1984 ISBN 0-312-08760-8 244 pp.
$27.50

St. Martin's Press

Scholarly & Reference Books

175 Fifth Avenue • New York, NY 10010

THE CANADIAN JOURNAL OF HISTORY ANNALES CANADIENNES D'HISTOIRE

Editor: D.L. Farmer

The Canadian Journal of History / Annales Canadiennes d'Histoire is published every April, August, and December. The 1985 issues will include the following articles:

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| T.J. Tronrud, | Poverty in Tudor and Early Stuart Towns in Kent |
| D.R. Woolf, | James I and the Late Queen's Famous Memory |
| R. Reid, | W.W. Holden and "Disloyalty" in the Civil War |
| J. Retallack, | Conservative contra Chancellor: Bismarck to Bülow |
| B.M. Smith, | Business, Politics, and Indian Land Settlements in Montana |
| R.J. Young, | France, the Axis Powers and Economic Disorder |

and Review Articles by M.H. Kater, P. Christianson, and M. Eksteins. Each issue will also contain about forty book reviews.

Subscriptions for 1985 (for all three issues, with surface postage) are $12 Canadian, $10 U.S., or £8 U.K., and should be sent by money order to the Subscription Secretary, Canadian Journal of History, History Department, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, Sask., Canada S7N 0W0.

B R I T I S H Lives, Letters, and Literature

BERNARD SHAW

Collected Letters

Dan H. Laurence, editor. Brilliant, witty, provocative, and utterly convincing on a wide range of topics—from politics and history to literature and art—George Bernard Shaw expressed his vivid opinions in a voluminous correspondence. With the publication of Collected Letters 1911–1925, his most disturbing and challenging years are chronicled in letters “full of delicious personal vignettes and a mine for the exploration of ideas Shaw later dramatized”—Saturday Review. Viking.

VOLUME III: 1911–1925

0-670-80545-9 1,040 pp. $45.00

Also available:

VOLUME I: 1874–1897

0-670-80543-2 1,040 pp. $45.00

VOLUME II: 1898–1910

0-670-80544-0 1,072 pp. $45.00

QUEEN VICTORIA IN HER LETTERS AND JOURNALS

Christopher Hibbert. The personal and political Victoria come forth in this thoughtful selection of her writings, revealing her views on a variety of subjects from affairs of state to music and literature to the personal appearance of her children. Illustrated. Viking.

0-670-80430-4 512 pp. $30.00

THE MEDIEVAL ECONOMY AND SOCIETY

M. M. Postan. “A survey of medieval English social and economic history which will surely hold the field for many years”—The Times Literary Supplement [London]. In the Pelican Economic History of Britain series.

0-14-020896-8 304 pp. $6.95

INSIDE THE INNER CITY

Life Under the Cutting Edge

Revised Edition

Paul Harrison. By the author of Inside the Third World, this challenging portrait of the underside of the affluent society and the hidden human costs of public policies offers unique insight into the social conflict and deprivation plaguing Britain's inner cities. Penguin.

0-14-022419-X 448 pp. $6.95

DESTINY OBSCURE

Autobiographies of Childhood, Education, and Family from the 1820s to the 1920s

John Burnett, editor. “The writings of more than eight hundred men and women mostly from the working or lower middle classes present a haunting account of the social conditions of the previous century”—Spectator. Penguin.

0-14-007345-0 352 pp. $10.95

USEFUL TOIL

Autobiographies of Working People from the 1820s to the 1920s

John Burnett, editor. Introduction by the editor. Twenty-seven autobiographies comprise a “useful reminder of what ordinary working-class life was like....Moving and often impressive”—Philip Toynbee. Penguin.

0-14-007346-9 368 pp. $10.95

LOVE ON THE DOLE

Walter Greenwood. This literary cry of outrage from depression-ridden Great Britain was one of the first novels to explore the personal tragedy of mass unemployment. Penguin.

0-14-002827-7 256 pp. $4.95

V I K I N G P E N G U I N I N C.

Academic Marketing Department, 40 West 23rd Street, New York, N.Y. 10010

Edmund Gosse

A Literary Landscape

Ann Thwaite

"Taken altogether, this is a biography of extraordinary interest. . . . It will surely take its place among the valuable accounts of English literary life in the late Victorian and early modern years."

— Samuel Hynes, New York Times Book Review

Cloth $25.00 567 pages

New England

Indian Summer, 1865–1915

Van Wyck Brooks

In its artful blending of high-minded intellectual gossip, relaxed literary comment, and lively narrative, this is perhaps the best of Brooks's classic volumes of American literary history. Brooks's anecdotal method is especially appropriate to a study of the formidable raconteurs and letter-writers who are his central figures in this book — William Dean Howells, the James brothers, and Henry Adams.

Paper $14.95 570 pages

A Stroll with William James

Jacques Barzun

"Somewhere in the universe the ardent, robust walker William James must be quietly delighted at receiving this eloquent and wise testimonial from a longtime traveling companion." — Robert Coles, New York Times Book Review

Paper $10.95 352 pages

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

5801 South Ellis Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637

First Feminists

British Women Writers, 1578-1799

Edited with an Introduction by Moira Ferguson

For this anthology tracing the origins of feminist thought in Britain, the editor chose 28 important writers from Margaret Taylor (1578) to Mary Anne Radcliffe (1799). An introduction provides the historical context and a synthesis of themes, events, and writers. Also included are detailed biographies of each excerpted author along with a primary and secondary bibliography.

Copublished with The Feminist Press
paper $12.95 cloth $25.00

Women in England 1870-1950

Sexual Divisions and Social Change

By Jane Lewis

A penetrating account of the changing nature of English working and middle-class women's experiences at school, home, work, and in politics from 1870-1950. "... offers an alternative depth of context for viewing the structure of women's lives. . . . thoughtful and judicious." —Joyce Berkman

paper $10.95 cloth $25.00

Women in Anglo-Saxon England and the Impact of 1066

By Christine Fell, with contributions by Cecily Clark and Elizabeth Williams

Written with wit and imagination, this comprehensive consideration of women in Anglo-Saxon England deals with myth and legend, daily life, sex and marriage, family and kinship, manor and court, and the religious life.

$24.50

Europe's Myths of Orient

By Rana Kabbani

This brisk and provocative book presents an incisive review of the poets, painters, pornographers, soldiers, and scholars who reinforced each other's racial, sexual, and class biases during the subjugation of North Africa and the Middle East.

$19.50

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Tenth and Morton Streets, Bloomington, Indiana 47405

Chicago

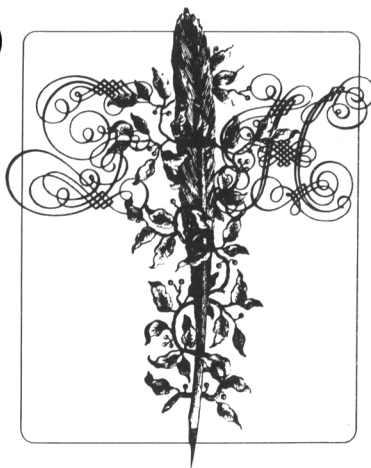

Love Known

Theology and Experience in George Herbert's Poetry

Richard Strier

This book changes the way we read one of the greatest masters of the lyric poem in English by demonstrating the inseparability of Herbert's theology and poetry. Strier argues persuasively for a strongly Protestant Herbert who shared Luther's sense of the primacy of the doctrine of justification by faith. Strier thus offers not only a new historical approach to Herbert, but a new appreciation of the relationship between the psychological realism and human appeal of the lyrics and their theological core.

- "It's absolutely first-rate, beautifully written, persuasively argued, and in most matters right on target."—Stanley Fish, Johns Hopkins University
 - "[Love Known] illuminates Herbert's poetry, often brilliantly, at the same time that it illuminates Protestant religion through Herbert's poetry."—John Coolidge, University of California, Berkeley
- Cloth $22.00 304 pages*

Of related interest _____

The "Inward" Language

Sonnets of Wyatt, Sidney, Shakespeare, Donne

Anne Ferry

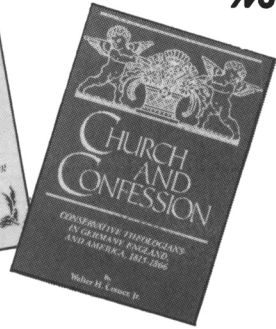

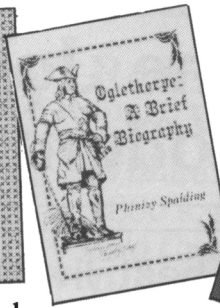

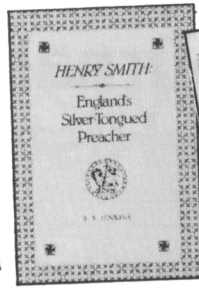

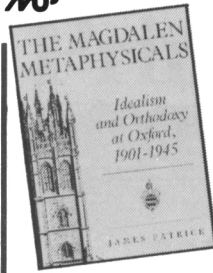

Ferry explores the ways that English Renaissance poets, lacking a modern psychological vocabulary, made innovative use of the sonnet form to express the emotions of the inner self. "Based on the soundest scholarly investigation. . . . [The "Inward" Language] is valuable both as a modern and as a thoroughly traditional insight into the problem of the 'self' in Renaissance writing."—David Kalstone

Cloth $25.00 272 pages

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

5801 South Ellis Avenue Chicago, IL 60637

MP

MP

The Magdalen Metaphysicals

Idealism and Orthodoxy at Oxford, 1901-1945

by James Patrick

Four philosopher-theologians at Magdalen College, Oxford—C. S. Lewis, R. G. Collingwood, Clement C. J. Webb, and John Alexander Smith—shared a commitment to traditional metaphysics and to history and a belief that thought and language are inseparable.

ISBN 0-86554-145-0

xl + 192 pages

$18.95

Church and Confession

Conservative Theologians in Germany, England, and America, 1815-1866

by Walter H. Conser, Jr.

Three groups of nineteenth-century Protestants—neo-Lutherans in Germany, Oxford Tractarians in England, and Lutheran, Reformed, and Episcopal church leaders in America—found in confessional theology a bulwark against the ferment of laissez-faire individualism.

ISBN 0-86554-119-1

viii + 361 pages

$28.95

Henry Smith

England's Silver-Tongued Preacher

by R. B. Jenkins

With care and eloquence Professor Jenkins examines the life, the sermons, and the influence of the most popular Puritan preacher of the age of Elizabeth.

ISBN 0-86554-077-2

vi + 131 pages

$10.95

Tudor Drama and Religious Controversy

by James C. Bryant

English theater bloomed in the soil of the English Reformation. James C. Bryant finds in the imagery, language, and action of several popular plays of the period some vibrant echoes of the living drama that was playing in the castles, courts, and cathedrals of the land.

ISBN 0-86554-129-9

x + 168 pages

$14.50

Oglethorpe

A Brief Biography

by Amos A. Ettinger, edited and introduced by B. Phinzy Spalding

Winner of the Beit Prize at Oxford University in 1929, this essay is published here for the first time. Ettinger offers a balanced and scholarly assessment of the life and achievements of James Oglethorpe.

ISBN 0-86554-110-8

xxix + 81 pages

$7.95

MP

Mercer University Press • Dept. 6-C • Macon, Georgia 31207

MP

The Journal of Modern History

“ . . . is the best, liveliest, the most interesting scholarly journal devoted to European history in this country, and probably the world.”

— Gene Brucker,

University of California, Berkeley

Edited by Keith Baker, John Boyer, and Julius Kirshner.

The JMH is the leading American journal for the study of European intellectual, political, and cultural history. Its distinguished roster of contributors includes:

Peter Burke	Anthony Giddens	Peter Paret
John Clive	Felix Gilbert	J. G. A. Pocock
Gordon Craig	Alan MacFarlane	Orest Ranum
François Furet	William H. McNeill	James J. Sheehan
Eugenio Garin	Arnaldo Momigliano	Hayden White
	Wolfgang Mommsen	Heinrich Winkler

The Journal's geographical and temporal range—the history of the European continent since the Renaissance—makes it unique: the JMH explores not only events and movements in specific countries but also broader questions that span particular times and places.

Published quarterly, the JMH is not only an important journal for the specialist in European history but also for the educated layperson interested in the forces that have shaped the history of Western civilization.

One-year rates: Individuals $27.00; Institutions $45.00; AHA Individual Members $20.00; HA Individual Members (Grt. Brit.) $20.00; Students with copy of ID $20.00. Outside USA add $3.00. Visa or MasterCard accepted. Send complete charge card information, purchase order, or payment to The University of Chicago Press, P.O. Box 37005, Chicago, Illinois 60637.

6/84

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

Princeton

The Growth of English Schooling, 1340-1548

Learning, Literacy and Laicization in Pre-Reformation York Diocese
Jo Ann Hoepfner Moran

In sharp contrast to the prevailing view, this book reveals the "educational revolution" of the 1500s to have grown from an earlier expansion of elementary and grammar education in the fourteenth through sixteenth centuries. $40.00

Redesigning The World

William Morris, the 1880's, and the Arts and Crafts

Peter Stansky

Considering William Morris's extraordinary career as a designer, socialist, politician, businessman and poet, Peter Stansky also focuses on the ambiguous relationship between Morris and his disciples, particularly their uneasiness about his belief that political revolution was essential if art were to be saved. $27.50

Now Available in Paperback

Charles Babbage

Pioneer of the Computer
Anthony Hyman

"New & Noteworthy"
— The New York Times Book Review

"Hyman has certainly succeeded in bringing the half-forgotten career of a near genius into focus."
— Redmond O'Hanlon, The New York Times Book Review P:$9.95. C:$27.50

At your bookstore or

41 William Street Princeton University Press Princeton, NJ 08540

THE ANNUAL BULLETIN OF HISTORICAL LITERATURE

is essential for up-to-date teaching and research.

Each volume provides a critical analysis of important historical literature published in one year.

Annual Bulletin LXVIII, out now, reviews the publications of 1982.

Also available, Volumes LXVI and LXVII.

£4.80 (members) £9.60 (non-members).

The Annual Bulletin is only available on subscription.

Order now from

The Historical Association,
59a, Kennington Park Road,
London SE11 4JH.

Boys Together

English Public Schools 1800–1864
John Chandos

“Chandos has drawn inspiration from student diaries, letters and recollections. And by doing so, he has managed both to situate the public schools in a historical context, and to delineate the texture of daily life, as it was once conducted at Eton, Harrow, Winchester, Rugby and Westminster.”
—Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times

“Wonderfully lively, . . . immensely enjoyable.” —Martin J. Wiener, N.Y. Times Book Review Illus. $29.95

William Godwin

Philosopher, Novelist, Revolutionary
Peter H. Marshall

“Marshall certainly deserves to be praised for writing a major work of scholarship on an important and fascinating man. . . . A handsome book, which contains many fine illustrations and an excellent bibliography.”
—H. T. Dickinson, The Times Higher Education Supplement $30.00

Yale

Yale University Press
Dept. 716J, 92A Yale Station
New Haven, CT 06520

The Art of Autobiography in 19th- and 20th- Century England

A. O. J. Cockshut

“An eminently wise and thoughtful discussion of the autobiographical genre.”
—Brian Martin, New Statesman

“In his comments on the works he discusses [Cockshut] implicitly gives us his vision of how a good life should be led; this results in a witty and elegant view of moral philosophy by a man steeped in literature.” —Anatole Broyard, New York Times Book Review $20.00

New in Paper

Victorian Pubs

Mark Girouard

“There have been other books on Victorian pubs. But none, I fancy, as scholarly, discursive and (by today’s standards) sumptuously illustrated as this one. . . . The book makes an enthralling read — a kind of armchair pub crawl — and is altogether a worthy successor to Girouard’s superb Victorian Country House.” —Alastair Best, Design Magazine 212 illus. $16.95

The Greek Heritage in Victorian Britain

Frank M. Turner

“A formidable and ground-breaking achievement. . . . One of the most important and far-reaching investigations of the roots of intellectual history to be published in decades, a book to be read and reread, . . . to be annotated, argued with, and debated on specific issues for years to come. It is a truly monumental achievement.”
—Peter Green, Times Literary Supplement Illus. $14.95

We take a lot of criticism.
And
publish it.

Paul de Man
Jacques Derrida
Michel Foucault
E. H. Gombrich
E. D. Hirsch
Joseph Kerman
Julia Kristeva
Leonard B. Meyer
Richard Rorty
Edward W. Said
Barbara Herrnstein Smith
Garry Wills

From Walt Whitman to Walter Benjamin, from Hegel's Aesthetics to Manet's brush strokes, from literary canons to musical modernism—in 1983-84 Critical Inquiry continues to explore critical issues in the arts and humanities. Now in its tenth year, the journal is as fresh, lively, alert, and provocative as the day it was new.

Critical Inquiry

Edited by W. J. T. Mitchell, Wayne C. Booth, Robert E. Streeter, Robert von Hallberg, Joel Snyder, and Françoise Meltzer. Published quarterly.

1 yr. rates: $27.50 individuals; $55. institutions; $20. students. Outside USA add $3. postage. Visa and MasterCard accepted. Send payment or charge card information to The University of Chicago Press, P.O. Box 37005, Chicago, IL 60637.

10/83

THE ENGLISH HISTORICAL REVIEW

Edited by A D Macintyre and P H Williams

Founded in 1886, The English Historical Review is the oldest quarterly journal of historical scholarship in the English-speaking world.

The Journal publishes original articles, notes and documents on all aspects of medieval, early modern and modern history. Although most of the material relates to British history, the journal regularly contains important contributions on the history of other countries — particularly Europe.

The English Historical Review also carries an extensive book review section and the July issue has a summary of literature published during the previous year.

The English Historical Review

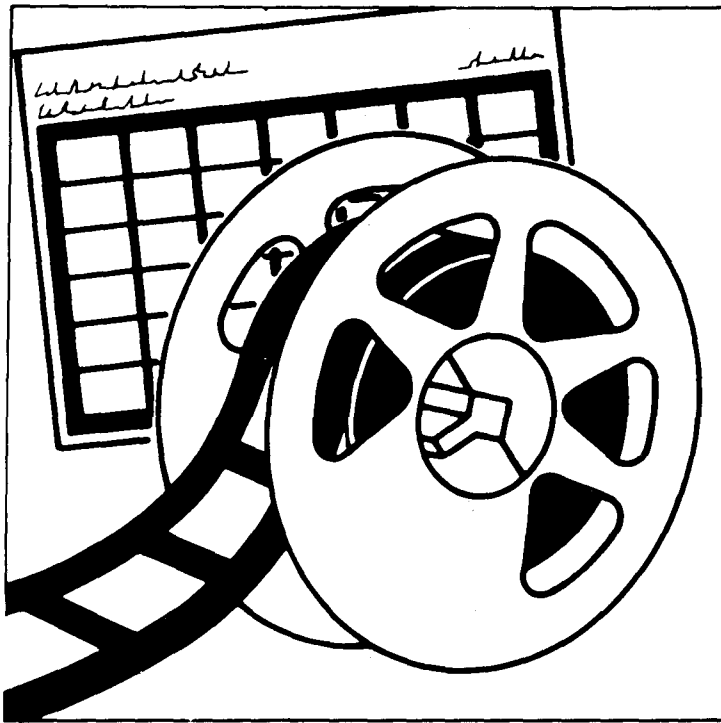

Volume 100, 1985 Published quarterly

ISSN 0013-8266

Annual subscription: $55.00 £29.00

*Please send orders with correct remittance to:
Subscriptions (Journals) Dept., Longman Group Limited, Fourth Avenue, Harlow, Essex CM19 5AA, England.*

Longman

Back issues of this title available in microform

Send for our new catalogue.

Name _____ Title _____

Institution _____

Street _____

City _____

State _____ Zip _____

Kraus Microform

Route 100, Millwood, NY 10546

(914) 762-2200

A Division of Kraus-Thomson Organization Ltd

Masterpieces of Wedgwood in the British Museum

By Aileen Dawson

Aileen Dawson has combined the masterpieces of the British Museum's extensive collection with the unparalleled achievements of Josiah Wedgwood. She brings to life his age, whose taste he both exploited and influenced.

(Published in Association with the British Museum)

paper $17.50 cloth $27.50

The Golden Age of Anglo-Saxon Art, 966-1066

Edited by Janet Backhouse, D. H. Turner, and Leslie Webster

Exploring one of the greatest periods of English art, the editors look at the religious and cultural revival of the tenth century in Anglo-Saxon England. Described and illustrated here are two hundred seventy-five treasures brought together for an exhibition at the British Museum and the British Library.

paper $20.00
cloth $32.50

Eighteenth-Century English Porcelain in the Collection of the Indianapolis Museum of Art

By Catherine Beth Lippert

Following an introduction outlining the history of porcelain manufactured in eighteenth-century England, the entries are grouped chronologically by factory. These porcelains reflect the prevailing tastes in fashion, theater, literature, and philosophy.

(Published in Association with the Indianapolis Museum of Art)

paper $30.00 cloth $45.00

Dreadful Fire! Burning of the Houses of Parliament

By Katherine Solender
Foreword by Evan H. Turner

Dreadful Fire! recounts the dramatic burning of the British Houses of Parliament 150 years ago on the night of October 16, 1834, as recorded in witnesses' testimony and in works of art.

(Published in Association with The Cleveland Museum of Art)

paper $7.95

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Tenth and Morton Streets, Bloomington, Indiana 47405

Lloyd George: From Peace to War, 1912–1916

by John Grigg

This is the third volume in Grigg's highly acclaimed biography of Lloyd George. It covers his transformation from a great but controversial peace minister into one whom even his former enemies hailed as a great war minister. Grigg describes this momentous phase in Lloyd George's life with a grand sweep, yet also with an abundance of vivid detail. $30.00. Also available: The Young Lloyd George $34.00, and Lloyd George: The People's Champion, 1902–1911 $40.00

Studies in Eighteenth-Century British Art and Aesthetics

Edited by Ralph Cohen

Cohen brings together eight original essays by notable scholars who examine various aspects of eighteenth-century art and aesthetics. The strength of these essays lies in the great breadth and rich variety of their topics. There is an interweaving of themes and arguments throughout the book which serves to develop aesthetic issues that are so important for a comprehensive understanding of the arts. Cohen's introduction pulls all the essays together while offering fresh perspectives on the nature of eighteenth-century aesthetics. $24.95

At bookstores or order from University of California Press

Berkeley 94720

Lloyd George by Auguste John

