Law and History Review (ISSN 0738-2480) is published twice a year, in spring and fall, by the University of Illinois Press for the American Society for Legal History. The purpose of the Review is to further research and writing in the fields of the social history of law and the history of legal ideas and institutions.

The Review is sent to all members of the American Society for Legal History. Information about membership in the Society appears on the inside back cover of this issue.

Address all business inquiries (subscriptions, membership applications, back-issue orders, advertisements, and change-of-address notices) to the Journals Department, University of Illinois Press, 1325 South Oak Street, Champaign, Illinois 61820. Requests for replacement of damaged or undelivered issues will be honored for up to six months after publication of the issue.

Address manuscript submissions and books for review to Christopher Tomlins, American Bar Foundation, 750 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60611. Instructions for preparation of manuscripts are printed on page ii.

For authorization to photocopy from Law and History Review for uses exceeding those permitted by Sections 107 and 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law, contact the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC), 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923. The CCC will send an invoice for permissions fees. Permissions given above do not extend to copying for advertising or promotional purposes or to creating new collective works.

Note to Contributors

The editors welcome unsolicited manuscripts, books for review, and suggestions concerning Law and History Review. Manuscripts should be submitted to Christopher Tomlins, American Bar Foundation, 750 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60611. The text should be typed, double-spaced, on 8½" x 11" paper with ample margins on all sides. Type on one side of the paper only. Footnotes should be typed double-spaced and separate from the text, and should conform to either the style found in the Chicago Manual of Style (14th ed.) or to A Uniform System of Citation (15th ed.); the Chicago Manual is preferred. Authors of accepted manuscripts should contact the editorial office regarding computer compatibility. Because of the commitment we ask of our outside referees, Law and History Review cannot consider for publication manuscripts that have been submitted to other journals. A submission to the Review carries with it the implicit promise that the author will not submit the manuscript elsewhere while it is under consideration by Law and History Review.
