

HISTORY MATTERS.

The First Socialist Society

A History of the Soviet Union from Within

Geoffrey Hosking

Here is a compelling history of what Soviet citizens have lived through from 1917 to the present. Through Hosking's analysis of this vast and complex country, we come to understand how ideas of Marxism have changed, taking on almost unrecognizable forms by unique political and economic circumstances.

$29.50

Munich and Theatrical Modernism

Politics, Playwriting, and Performance, 1890–1914

Peter Jelavich

This is the first cultural exploration of playwriting, directing, acting, and theater architecture in fin de siècle Munich. Jelavich makes an important contribution toward understanding the political and commercial determinants of the rise of modernism.

$27.50

Medieval Households

David Herlihy

Herlihy explores questions about the nature of family and household from ancient Greece to fifteenth-century Tuscany, to provide a broad new interpretation of family life.

Studies in Cultural History

$30.00 cloth; $11.95 paper

The Making of Urban Europe, 1000–1950

Paul M. Hohenberg and Lynn Hollen Lees

By tracing large-scale processes of social, economic, and political change within cities, as well as the evolving relationships between town and country and between city and city, the authors present an original synthesis of European urbanization within a global context.

Harvard Studies in Urban History

$30.00

Available in paperback

When Fathers Ruled

Family Life in Reformation Europe

Steven Ozment

"When Fathers Ruled is the work of one of America's foremost historians of Reformation theology . . . [Ozment shows] a willingness to take controversial stands on major historiographical issues, [and] a prose style rich in striking formulations and vivid anecdotes."

—Journal of Interdisciplinary History
Studies in Cultural History

$7.50 paper

Architecture and Politics in Germany, 1918–1945

Barbara Miller Lane

With a new Preface by the author

"[This] is the kind of work on which the study of politics and culture will thrive. It is thoroughly researched, beautifully illustrated, and a paradigm of objectivity."

—American Political Science Review

$12.50 paper

Harvard University Press

79 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA 02138