Party Leadership and Revolutionary Power in China

Edited by JOHN WILSON LEWIS

Twelve scholars from Britain and the United States examine Communist party politics as they evolved before the Communist takeover in 1949, to give a clearer perspective to problems which have confronted the Communist leadership in the past twenty years. This is the first book in an important new series, the Contemporary China Institute Publications. Cloth £4 net; Paperback 25s. net

The Hsi-yu Chi

G. DUDBRIDGE

A study of the early versions of the classic Chinese novel known to English readers as 'Monkey'. Dr Dudbridge examines a long tradition of earlier versions in narrative and dramatic form. The study uses Chinese characters both on text pages and in the extensive bibliography.

A Collection of Tales from Uji

D. E. MILLS

A translation and study of the Uji shūi monogatari, a collection of Japanese tales compiled probably in the early thirteenth century. They range from edifying Buddhist homilies to amusing and sometimes coarse anecdotes about the everyday lives of nobles, priests and peasants.

Illustrated by 34 line drawings.

Ma Huan: Ying-yai shen-lan

The Overall Survey of the Ocean's Shores

Translated and edited by J. V. G. MILLS

A new translation of Ma Huan's description of the Fifteenth century, dealing with twenty countries from Champa (Central Vietnam) in the east to Mecca in the west. It is based on the definitive text composed by the eminent Chinese scholar Feng Ch'eng-Chun, first published in 1935. This is number XLII in the Hakluyt Society Extra Series.

Manuscripts

The China Quarterly welcomes the submission of manuscripts on all aspects of contemporary China and from all points of view, including those which deal with Taiwan and Overseas Chinese. Articles on China prior to 1949 are also welcome, particularly, but not exclusively, when these relate directly to contemporary China or to the history of the Chinese Communist Party. Articles should be submitted, together with a duplicate copy, to the editorial office. They should be typed in double spacing and, preferably, conform to the styling of The China Quarterly.

The China Quarterly is published by the Contemporary China Institute of the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University, with the support of the International Association for Cultural Freedom. The views expressed in articles are those of individual authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the Contemporary China Institute.

Anthology and Bibliography

Edited by JEROME CH'EN

Jerome Ch'en has translated and brought together a number of rare and little-known writings of Mao Tse-tung, including Mao's Instructions issued before and during the Cultural Revolution, which are of great importance to the understanding of events in China at that time. There is a bibliography, in English and Chinese, of Mao's writings, and a preface on Mao's literary style. 4 plates 55s

The Extraterritorial System in China: Final Phase

JOHN CARTER VINCENT

In the period between the two world wars, constant pressures were exerted by the Kuomintang government of China to undermine the Extraterritorial system founded in the 'unequal treaties'. The author has prepared a series of case histories describing the difficulties which the American government experienced during that period in their endeavours to interpret and maintain American treaty rights in the face of Chinese antagonism.
