The British and Irish Association of Law Librarians was founded in 1969 to promote the better administration and exploitation of law libraries and legal information units.

Full membership is open to persons and institutions engaged in the provision or exploitation of legal literature. Associate membership is open to individuals and institutions not so engaged, but who support the aims of the Association. Members are entitled to participate in Association activities, about which they are automatically notified.

Further information and membership application forms may be obtained from admin@biall.org.uk or by writing to the Hon. Secretary at the above address

Editorial Board Mission Statement and Aims

Mission Statement

Legal Information Management is the principal journal for library and information professionals in the field of legal information management in the UK and Ireland

Aims

- To focus on the needs of British and Irish law librarians and legal information professionals
- To raise the profile of BIALL
- To be the platform for current developments in legal information management

Objectives

- To increase the appeal of the journal by offering a mix of ideas and subjects
- To be a means of continuing professional development for legal information professionals through the range of articles covered
- To provide a balanced coverage of areas of interest to different groups of members
- To ensure that the journal is cross-jurisdictional in coverage
- To ensure that the journal includes an international outlook
- To provide refereed articles
- To be a means of communication between and with members and Committees within BIALL and with organisations outwith BIALL

European legal research in no time

Europe growing.

It's growing in size. It's growing in influence. And the application and weight of its laws are growing at a faster rate than many busy practitioners can keep up with. Without competent information management, the situation can only worsen.

Enter Justis EU.

Our new and enhanced package includes a database of summaries from the supreme courts of EU states for cases relating to EU legal issues, along with the full-text EU legislation and other established components of our European Law offering.

Justis EU

Justis EU is CELEX, OJC, OJ Daily and the all new Caselex. With its breadth of coverage and efficient data handling, Justis EU is essential for the quick retrieval of the information you need.

Our versatile technology ensures time-saving searches can be conducted in a number of ways including:

Partial Reference Searching

Find documents without the need for an exact reference.

Common Name Searching

You call it the Distance Selling Directive so that's what we call it.

Keyword and free text searching

For when you need a document concerning a certain topic but can't find its name or reference.

User-defined alerting

Save your searches and set up alerts to receive automatic notification of any new documents that match your criteria.

Furthermore, fast cross-referencing of EU information is available for JustCite users through the JustCite European Citations search tab.

Elements of Justis EU are available individually or as a package.

For new subscriptions or to expand your existing subscription, call +44 (0)20 7284 8080 or email sales@justis.com

Featuring: Caselex

A groundbreaking and time-saving database, Caselex compensates for the lack of domestic precedents on which cases dealing with EU law can be based.

Contained in the database are a unique collection of high-quality summaries of cases – translated into English – from the supreme courts of 22 EU member states, Iceland, Norway, the EFTA Court, the EU Court of Justice and the EU Court of First Instance.

The cases, with coverage from 01/01/2000, are selected by a network of legal advisors throughout Europe and initially cover the following practice areas:

Company Law

ICT and Media Law

Competition Law

Intellectual Property Law

Consumer Protection Law

Private International Law

Employment Law

Public Procurement Law

Environmental Law

Social Security Law

Freedom of Movement Law

Though available as part of the Justis EU package, it benefits from the advanced functionality of its own dedicated platform at www.caselex.com.

Caselex is also available to purchase as a stand-alone subscription exclusively through Justis Publishing Ltd in the UK and Ireland.
