

Announcing a new series:

Constitutional Thinking

Jeffrey K. Tulis and Sanford Levinson, series editors

Books in the series will develop constitutional theory beyond legalistic concerns by examining such matters as institutional development; public policy; and political behavior, culture, and theory. The editorial approach, then, favors a constitutional theory embracing the full range of activities relevant to the making, maintenance, and reform of constitutions and constitutional cultures.

Habeas Corpus in America

The Politics of Individual Rights

Justin J. Wert

By explaining how habeas corpus protections are more contingent than heretofore understood or acknowledged, Wert demonstrates that the Great Writ is a tool of politics and politicians as much as it is a tool of the law and judges. "This is the best history of habeas corpus that I know of," praises Mark Graber. "It both confirms and extends important insights in American constitutional development, as well as providing vital information on a basic constitutional right."

BOOK REVIEWS. All correspondence regarding book reviews should be sent to Professor Peter R. Moody, Jr. at the above address.

MANUSCRIPT LENGTH. Normal length of published manuscripts is 8,000-11,000 words. The entire manuscript, including notes and quotations, should be double-spaced.

Author anonymity. Because manuscripts are evaluated anonymously they should not bear the author's name or institutional affiliation. Please remove all references or acknowledgments that might indicate the identity of the author.

Abstract and keywords. All article submissions should include an abstract of 100-150 words.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION AND STYLE. The Review of Politics follows the Chicago Manual of Style for standards of citation, punctuation, and other editorial considerations.

Figures and tables. Appendices, tables, and figures should be numbered consecutively throughout the article and be included on separate pages appearing after the reference section. Each figure must be submitted electronically as a separate file. Electronic versions should be submitted as TIFF or EPS files at 100% of a suitable final size. Charts, graphs, or other artwork should be professionally rendered and computer generated.

COPYEDITING AND PAGE PROOFS.

The publisher reserves the right to copyedit and proofread all articles accepted for publication. Page proofs of an article will be sent to the lead author of an article for correction of typographical errors only; authors must notify the publisher or the editorial office of any changes within 72 hours of receipt of proof or approval will be assumed.

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AGREEMENT.

Papers with multiple authors are reviewed with the assumption that all authors concur with its submission. A Copyright Transfer Agreement, with certain specified rights reserved by the author, must be signed and returned to the Editor by senior authors of accepted manuscripts, prior to publication. The Review of Politics does not accept manuscripts for review that are under review elsewhere, previously published, or already committed for publication.
