Advancing research. Increasing access.

Informed by detailed consultation with the library and research communities, we are constantly developing our industry-leading online journals platform.

Some recent advances include:

- Refreshed site design, facilitating rapid access to the most relevant content.
- New advanced search interface and a more detailed, fielded quick search function.
- Enriched content in the form of multimedia companions and editorial blogs.
- Launch of Cambridge Open Option, our open access initiative.

Visit journals.cambridge.org/openoption for more information.

This new journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from 1650 onwards, with primary attention to Europe and the United States but also to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. It enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Continuity and Change aims to define a field of historical sociology concerned with long-term continuities and discontinuities in the structure of past societies. Emphasis is upon studies whose agenda or methodology combines elements from traditional fields such as history, sociology, law, demography, economics or anthropology, or ranges freely between them. There is a strong commitment to comparative studies over a broad range of cultures and time spans.

1. Articles should usually be less than 9000 words, including endnotes and a 100-word abstract. Texts should be double-spaced throughout and on one side of the paper only, with generous margins and submitted by email as Word files to each of the Editors and the Editorial Assistant. The title page should indicate the word-length of the article and affiliation and contact address of the author(s). Comments on previously published articles will also be considered, provided they do not exceed 1500 words.
2. Endnotes should be numbered consecutively through the manuscript and typed double-spaced on separate pages at the end. Bibliographical references should be given in full in the endnotes when first cited; thereafter use author surname and short title.
3. Maps and graphs (figures) and tables should be submitted in separate files, and the text annotated to indicate where they should be placed. Figures should be submitted as tif or eps files. Electronic Figure Guidelines can be obtained from the Editorial Assistant.
4. British conventions for spelling and punctuation are followed.
5. The Editors reserve the right to request authors to meet the costs of major correction to the English that they consider necessary after the articles have been reviewed and resubmitted by the authors.
6. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved).

A full set of conventions is available on our website at: journals.cambridge.org/con.
