

ANNOUNCING PUBLICATION OF
VOLUME V
SINICA FRANCISCANA

Edited and Annotated by
ANASTASE VAN DEN WYNGAERT, O.F.M. and GEORGE MENSAERT, O.F.M.

The text reproduces an unsurpassed collection of 406 documents—reports and letters of Friars Minor laboring in China during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries—all in their original language (Latin, Italian, Spanish or Portuguese), which cast a most helpful light on the history of the missions of the Chinese Empire as well as on the whole missionary interest of Europe during the period. An introduction outlines the history of the Catholic Missions in China at the time of Bishop Bernardine Della Chiesa, O.F.M. (1684-1721), first modern Bishop of Peking. The explanatory notes, in Latin, are largely taken from sources hitherto untouched, notably the Secret Vatican Archives.
