TEL

TRANSNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

Transnational Environmental Law (TEL) is a peer-reviewed journal that will be launched by Cambridge University Press in 2012. TEL is dedicated to the study of environmental law and governance beyond the state. It approaches legal and regulatory developments with an interest in the contribution of non-state actors and an awareness of the multi-level governance context in which contemporary environmental law unfolds.

TEL warmly invites new work on topics within the scope of the journal from scholars, lawyers and professionals active in fields related to environmental law and governance.

Leiden Journal of International Law

Published for The Foundation of the Leiden Journal of International Law

Editors-in-Chief

Larissa van den Herik, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Jean D'Aspremont, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others) and elsewhere, as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.

Netherlands International Law Review

Marketed and distributed for T.M.C. Asser Press

Editor-in-Chief

P. Vlas, Free University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The Netherlands International Law Review (NILR) addresses relevant topics and recent trends in international law and the conflict of laws, including their comparative legal aspects. Articles are combined with English-language reports on topical Dutch judicial decisions, surveys of the case law on the topic of civil jurisdiction and enforcement of judgments in Europe, an update on the current developments regarding The Hague's international tribunals, an overview of the Hague Conventions on Private International Law, book reviews, and occasionally, a short commentary on case law or legislation. The journal serves as a reliable source of information for scholars and practitioners and anyone who wants to stay up-to-date with the most important developments in these fields.

Please note a subscription includes an annual volume of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law (NYIL)

Netherlands Yearbook of International Law

Marketed and distributed for T.M.C. Asser Press

General Editors

I. F. Dekker, Utrecht University, Netherlands

E. Hey, Erasmus University Rotterdam, Netherlands

The Netherlands Yearbook of International Law has been published since 1970. It has two main aims. It offers a forum for the publication of scholarly articles of a more general nature in the area of public international law, including the law of the European Union. In addition, it responds to the demand for information on state practice in the field of international law. Each Yearbook therefore includes an overview of state practice in the Netherlands, with statements of the government, treaties, legislation, judicial decisions and literature. Netherlands Yearbook of International Law can be purchased individually or as part of a subscription to Netherlands International Law Review.
