

Zimbabwe's Inheritance

edited by Colin Stoneman,
University of Zimbabwe

This pioneering study presents the first comprehensive analysis of Zimbabwe's political, social and economic parameters as the country and its leaders cope with the problems and ramifications of her newly-independent status. Based on the most recent statistics and information available, the book provides a concise examination of the political forces, institutions and conflicts inherited by the new leadership and of the tensions produced by the existing social structure.

ON THE CUTTING EDGE OF HISTORICAL RESEARCH

Methods developed in African history are just beginning to be used by historians of other world areas.

Those methods—including linguistics, oral traditions, textual evaluation, comparative historical and historiographical research—are the major concern of African historians and of historians everywhere.

HISTORY IN AFRICA is an essential companion to any contemporary historical bookshelf.

AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION

THE AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION was organized in 1957 as a non-profit membership corporation to bring together persons with a scholarly and professional interest in Africa, to provide useful services to the Africanist community, and to publish and distribute appropriate scholarly and informational materials. Membership is open to individuals and institutions.

AN ANNUAL MEETING in the Fall provides an occasion for panels, plenary sessions and discussion groups, exhibits and films. Participants from America, Africa and Europe gather for this Meeting which is held in different regions of the U.S. each year, in cooperation with major colleges, universities and museums, and under the program direction of a distinguished Africanist. The annual business meeting of the members of the ASA takes place at that time.

MEMBERS RECEIVE THREE REGULAR PUBLICATIONS:

AFRICAN STUDIES REVIEW: Prints review articles and essays of scholarly and bibliographical substance. Incorporates the former ASA REVIEW OF BOOKS, maintaining its critical evaluation of significant Africanist publications. Edited by R. Hunt Davis, Jr. and Melvin E. Page.

ISSUE: A JOURNAL OF OPINION: Presents provocative and timely comment on critical developments in Africa and African studies. Guest edited by distinguished scholars and professionals. Recent editions have focussed on the Second Republic of Nigeria (C.S. Whitaker) and the Reconstruction of Zimbabwe (L. Suransky and A. Mazrui).

ASA NEWS: Reports current and future activities of the Association, bibliographical and news notes, employment notices, significant correspondence and announcements of concern to the world community of Africanists.

DUES: INSTITUTIONS: $48 domestic; $55 overseas surface; $90 overseas airmail

DUES: INDIVIDUALS: $40 regular and sustaining members earning over $20,000 per year, $30 regular and sustaining members earning less than $20,000 per year, $15 student, retired and unemployed (3 year limit); $80 airmail (for addresses outside North America). Sustaining membership is available upon request after three years of consecutive regular membership. Sustaining members receive complimentary registration at annual meetings and can stand for election.
