

MESOAMERICAN WRITING SYSTEMS

Propaganda, Myth, and History in Four Ancient Civilizations

JOYCE MARCUS

In this anthropological study of the role of hieroglyphic writing in the prehispanic Aztec, Mixtec, Zapotec, and Maya states, Joyce Marcus contends that ancient Mesoamerican writing was a tool used by an elite minority in their competition for leadership, prestige, territory, tribute, and advantageous marriages.

Marcus convincingly demonstrates that while it may have been based on actual persons and events, this body of prehistoric writing is a deliberately created tangle of what we could call propaganda, myth, and fact, written for political purposes, and not reliable "history" in a modern sense.

"A masterful piece of work. We are in the presence of a tour de force."

—Robert L. Carneiro,
American Museum of Natural History

"A brilliant work, carefully reasoned and effectively argued, but balanced and not overstated. The scholarship is truly outstanding. Joyce Marcus is one of the great Mesoamericanists of our generation."

—E. Wyllys Andrews V, Tulane University

"This is a major contribution. The scholarship is first-rate!"

—Jeremy A. Sabloff, University of Pittsburgh

"This book is an important corrective for exaggerated claims made about recent advances in Maya epigraphy. The scholarship is impeccable."

—John S. Henderson, Cornell University

"This book is in the best of the anthropological tradition."

—Robert J. Sharer, University of Pennsylvania

Instructions for Contributors

Ancient Mesoamerica will publish primarily in English, but will also feature contributions in Spanish. All papers will have Spanish (or English) summaries as a regular feature to enhance scholarly communication. When preparing your contribution, please remember that Ancient Mesoamerica unifies several different fields from archaeology to ethnohistory, art history and beyond. We also wish to reach nonspecialist readers. While some degree of technical language is often proper and necessary, jargon can always be avoided. Therefore, authors should strive for clear, lucid prose. The Editors will gladly discuss topics or contents of manuscripts prior to submission.

Manuscript Submission

Please submit 5 copies of the manuscript text and line drawings; colleagues with limited photocopying facilities may send only 1 copy. If photographs are included, only one set of original prints should be sent, along with 4 photocopies. Double-space the entire manuscript, including references and tables, with ample margins to permit editorial marking. The manuscript must be accompanied by a letter of transmittal stating that the work has not been published elsewhere, in whole or in part, nor is it under consideration for publication elsewhere. Papers may be submitted in Spanish or English. Artwork must be no larger than 24 square inches; artwork must be camera-ready and be securely packaged in a protective envelope. Mail manuscripts or make editorial inquiries to the Editorial Office (see inside cover for complete information).

Peer Review Procedures

Each contribution will be reviewed by at least three, and sometimes as many as five, outside readers who will make recommendations to the Editors concerning revision of the manuscript, acceptance or rejection. The reviewers' anonymous comments will be passed on to the authors.

Categories of Papers

(a) Full articles are longer contributions of general interest that are 25–30 double-spaced manuscript pages in length, including references; (b) reports are shorter contributions of about 15–20 pages in length focusing on important finds, reinterpretations, comments, and so on. The Editors or a Guest Editor will occasionally assemble a special section of related reports; and (c) notes are newsworthy items of a very short length.

Editorial and Reference Style

In general, follow American Antiquity style. Two abstracts of 150 words or less should be included: one in English and one in Spanish. Footnotes may be used, but only if deemed absolutely necessary; they should be numbered consecutively and collected at the end of the text. The order of manuscript elements should be as follows: title page, abstracts pages, main text, Spanish summary, acknowledgments, footnotes, references, tables, and figures (line drawings and photographs in a protective envelope). Tables and figures should be numbered consecutively using Arabic numerals. Sample references:

Illustrations

All figures must be camera-ready and be of professional quality. Please send oversize artwork for reduction to size or high-contrast photostats already reduced to exact size. Please allow for reduction when judging type size for captions. Put scales on the figures, not in legends.

Electronic Input

After a contribution is accepted, the Editors will ask the author to submit the article on a floppy disk, if possible. When doing so, please specify the type of computer used, the operating system, and program (e.g., IBM-PC, PC-DOS, WordPerfect). The electronic manuscript should be limited to standard ASCII characters, with two returns between all text elements, with two returns between each paragraph and reference, and with all lines beginning flush left. Omit formatting codes for indenting, centering, etc. If you do not use a word processor, your manuscript will be typeset in the traditional manner.

Copyright and Offprints Policy

Contributors must complete the Transfer of Copyright Agreement form, available from the Editors, before their paper can be transmitted for production. The lead author of each article or report will receive 25 free offprints from the Publisher, with the opportunity to purchase additional offprints and complete copies of the issue at favorable rates.
