

Mediaeval Texts and Books Dealing with

THE MIDDLE AGES
THE RENAISSANCE
CLASSICAL ANTIQUITY

LATEST CATALOGUES

152. Italy. History, Topography, Literature, Art.
153 & 154. Middle Ages and Renaissance.
155 & 156. Orientalia, including books from the Library of
Dr. George Sarton.

WILLIAM SALLOCH Old, Rare & Scholarly Books
142 Seventh Avenue South, New York 14, New York

A complete file of the back numbers of
RENAISSANCE NEWS

including indices & microfilm of out-of-print numbers through IX may be obtained at a total cost of $25. Separate volumes are available as follows:

Volume I (1948), Volume II (1949) and Index on Microfilm positive	$4
Volumes III, IV, V (1950, 1951, 1952) and Index	$4
Volumes VI, VII, VIII (1953, 1954, 1955) and Index	$7
Volume IX and Studies in the Renaissance III at current subscription rates	$4
Studies in the Renaissance I, II, each	$3

Checks in payment of back numbers should be made payable to

Renaissance News 1161 AMSTERDAM AVENUE · NEW YORK 27

A Contribution to a Union Catalog of 16th Century Imprints
in certain New England Libraries

Compiled by Professor Leicester Bradner of the Department of English at Brown University

Published by Brown University Library 1953
466 pages, multilithed

A short-title census of more than 10,000 sixteenth century imprints in fifty New England libraries

Can be supplied: Unbound at $3.00, Bound at $5.24
postpaid, no discount

Address orders to

BROWN UNIVERSITY PRESS
Providence 12, Rhode Island

Milton and Science

KESTER SVENDSEN reveals the place of science in Milton's thought—its use as argument in his prose and as art in his poetry. Throughout his intensive study, the author is concerned with the richly symbolic and emblematic elements of popular science in the Renaissance. As a result of his illuminating analysis, many passages in Milton's poems are revealed for the first time in their full depth. $5.50

Through your bookseller, or from

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS
79 Garden Street, Cambridge 38, Massachusetts