AT ETERNITY'S GATE

The Spiritual Vision of Vincent van Gogh

FOREWORD BY MARTIN E. MARTY

"Erickson's account of the spiritual dimensions of Vincent van Gogh's work is an important corrective to widespread assumptions. . . . Drawing extensively on van Gogh's correspondence, Erickson argues convincingly . . . that his abandonment of institutional Christianity was not so much an abandonment of religion as a move to synthesize Christianity and modernity via mysticism. . . . A lucid and accessible contribution to understanding the religious character of van Gogh's artistic vision."

— PUBLISHERS WEEKLY

"Soundly informed and judiciously handled, notably with respect to van Gogh's formative religious background and its long-term effects on his life, thought, and motivation, including his artistic choices. Erickson also provides remarkable insight into van Gogh's legendary illness, showing its religious dimensions and demonstrating its impact on his art from a novel perspective. . . . The most reliable resource to date."

— E. JOHN WALFORD

"A readable, accessible study that will reward the unquenchable interest among a broad reading public in an artist whose mythic proportions cry out for historical understanding and a 'sane' view of religion in modern life. Erickson approaches her subject with sympathy and a willingness to go where the widely ignored evidence will take her."

What Is Hispanic About Hispanic Protestants? What Is Protestant About Hispanic Protestants?

Protestantes/Protestants:
*Hispanic Christianity Within Mainline Traditions
edited by David Maldonado, Jr.

What does it mean to be Hispanic within Protestant denominations which are predominantly Anglo?

Protestantes/Protestants, a volume of essays by Hispanic Protestant scholars, offers a multi-disciplinary introduction to Hispanic Christianity within mainline Protestant traditions. Two crucial questions dominate these essays: What is Hispanic about Hispanic Protestants and what is Protestant about Hispanic Protestants?

CA9-055091. Paper, $30.00

Insightful and contemporary. Includes a rich variety of perspectives that will enlighten and challenge all who serve in Hispanic ministries. Especially critical reading for Protestant Church leadership as they face the enormous growth and potential of Hispanic people in the United States.

English-language Editor

DAVID B. BARRETT
Statistical Editor

Foreword by
JAROSLAV PELIKAN

The Encyclopedia of Christianity is a monumental, momentous reference work that addresses the broad interest in Christianity and religion around the world today. Comprehensive, up to date, reflecting the highest standards in scholarship yet intended for a wide range of readers, the EC describes the Christian faith and community in their myriad forms today and throughout the 2,000 years of Christian history.

Volume 1 of the projected five-volume work contains 465 articles comprising the alphabetical entries A–D.

"A major resource. . . . Necessary for libraries, students, and teachers."

—HENRY CHADWICK

"In a time when serious theological education is often lacking, this great reference work, basic and detailed at the same time, is of immense help for the study of theology, for practical church work, and for general education."

—HANS KÜNG

"The appearance of the Encyclopedia of Christianity is a major publishing event. Both the breadth and the depth of this work make it essential for libraries, scholars, and churches."

—MARK A. NOLL

THE SOCIAL ORIGINS OF CAMP MEETING REVIVALISM

Ellen Eslinger

One of America's most enduring forms of public worship, the camp meeting had its beginnings at the dawn of the nineteenth century during the "Great Revival" that swept the newly settled regions of the young republic. This book explores the creation of the new form of worship that enabled people to relate more comfortably to a changing society through an intense collective experience.

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced end-notes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.

Church History: Studies in Christianity and Culture is published four times per year (March, June, September, and December) by the American Society of Church History. Membership dues for individuals are $40 per year for regular membership, $20 per year for retired persons who previously held regular membership for at least five years; and free for two years for graduate students with the approval of a professor who is a member of the Society (after two years, graduate students pay $20 annually until graduation). Institutional subscriptions are $50 per year. Foreign postage is an additional $10 per year. Single issues are $15. Please make remittances payable to "American Society of Church History."

Office of the executive secretary: American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701-8517.

Subscription applications, renewals, changes of address, claims for missing numbers, orders for single copies of current or back issues, and requests for permission to quote should be sent to the executive secretary. Claims for missing numbers will be honored without charge if made within two months of the regular month of publication.

Microfilm reproductions of The American Society of Church History Papers, series I and II, and of Church History, volumes 1–17 (1932–48), are available from the ATLA Preservation Board. Orders for these reproductions as well as inquiries about microfilm portions and photocopies should be sent to 1118 East 54th Place, Chicago, IL 60615.

Microfilm reproductions of Church History starting with volume 18 (1949) are available to subscribers and members of the Society from University Microfilms, 300 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106. The full text of Church History is also available in the electronic versions of the Humanities Index. Church History is indexed in Religion Index One: Periodicals, Index to Book Reviews in Religion, Religion Indexes: RIO/RIT/IBRR 1975– on CD-ROM, and ATLA Religion Database on CD-ROM, all published by the American Theological Library Association, 820 Church Street, Suite 400, Evanston, IL 60201-5613; (888) 665-ATLA; atla@atla.com; <http://atla.library.vanderbilt.edu/atla/home.html>.

The following indexes are available from the office of the executive secretary: volumes 31–39 (1962–1970), volumes 40–49 (1971–1980), vols. 50–59 (1981–1990). Each index costs $15. Book reviews are indexed or abstracted in Book Review Index, Historical Abstracts, and America: History and Life.

Editorial office: Church History, The Divinity School, Duke University, Box 90975, Durham, NC 27708-0975; (919) 660-3470; fax (919) 660-3473; church-history@duke.edu.

Send manuscripts, books for review, and requests about advertising to the editorial office. Manuscripts should run 6,000–11,000 words (or approximately 20–35 pages), not including endnotes, and should be printed double-spaced in 11- or 12-point font; endnotes must be printed double-spaced on separate pages following the text. The editors request (1) three copies of the manuscript (in order to protect the author's anonymity during the review process, the author's name should appear only on the title page of the essay); (2) three copies of a 200-word abstract (if Church History publishes the essay, the abstract may be printed above the first line of the text of the article and/or it may be included on the forthcoming Church History webpage); (3) a 3½-inch diskette containing the manuscript and abstract (instead of sending a diskette, you may submit your manuscript and abstract by electronic mail). Further guidelines are available on request.

Church History is printed by the Science Press division of Mack Printing Group, Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Periodicals postage paid at Red Bank, New Jersey and additional mailing offices. Postmaster: Send address changes to American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.
