

Dissent from the Homeland: Essays after September 11

Stanley Hauerwas and Frank Lentricchia,
special issue editors

James Nachtwey/VII

In this special issue, well-known writers and scholars from across the humanities and social sciences take a critical look at U.S. domestic and foreign policies—past and present—as well as the recent surge of patriotism. These dissenting voices provide a thought-provoking alternative to the public approval, both at home and abroad, of the U.S. military response, to the September 11 attacks.
