APSA Membership Opens Doors Take Advantage of the Value of APSA Membership

As the the oldest, largest, and most comprehensive political science society in the world, APSA supports over 14,000 members
in 70 countries
and advances
political science
in many ways.

Offering Online Scholarship

Scholarship is central to APSA membership. Current and recent back issues of all three APSA journals are available online to members through Cambridge Journals Online. Members can also gain access to the full historical collection through JSTOR subscriptions. Political Research Online (PROL), a collaborative project led by APSA and a consortium of political science and related associations, houses 30,000 searchable conference papers.

Creating Networks and Connecting Scholars

APSA strives to provide valuable opportunities for members to network with colleagues, share ideas, and form relationships to drive their careers. Members receive discounts for APSA conferences—the Teaching and Learning Conference, Conference for Chairs, and the Annual Meeting—as well as access to the association's Organized Sections.

Providing Career and Employment Resources

APSA's eJobs is the most comprehensive online resource of political science employment opportunities and job candidates. It is fully searchable and updated daily with new job listings and candidate resumes. The eJobs placement service at the Annual Meeting brings employers and candidates together in person to greatly facilitate the hiring process.

Supporting Political Science Research

The Centennial Center for Political Science & Public Affairs, located at APSA's headquarters building, provides office space for scholars and students conducting field work in Washington, D.C. Through the Center, APSA also offers a number of research grant opportunities for scholars working in various subfields.

Philosophy for Perspectives on Politics

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

A full-length copy of the editorial philosophy appears in Perspectives on Politics 8(1): 7–10 and also on the web at http://www.apsanet.org/content_44375.cfm.

Submission and Review

For submission guidelines, please see http://www.apsanet.org/content_44360.cfm.

Our editorial team discusses all submissions. Those that seem promising are evaluated by several external reviewers—with full confidentiality on both sides—and then accepted, returned for further revisions, or declined with suggestions of more appropriate venues for publication.

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 15,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to expand awareness and understanding of politics.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing three distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, and PS: Political Science and Politics.

eJobs: Your Online Resource for Political Science Careers and Candidates

APSA's eJobs is a year-round, online resource for political science employment opportunities and job candidates. It contains the most comprehensive online database of political science jobs, is updated daily with new job listings and candidate resumes, and is fully searchable by field of interest, name of employer/candidate, region, keyword, position, salary, type of institution, and most recent listings.

How Does eJobs Work?

Job Candidates

APSA members can access all open job listings and post their resume online to share with prospective employers by logging in to www.apsanet.org with your MyAPSA member login. The service is free to and offered exclusively to APSA members. Only APSA members can access the job listings or post their resumes to share with prospective employers. We encourage non-members who are interested in the service to join APSA now.

Employers

Employers who are APSA Departmental Services Program (DSP) members may post an unlimited number of job listings to share with prospective candidates and may search the all available resumes free of charge. Employers who are not DSP members may advertise positions for a fee. Non-member employers who have posted a job listing can also access the candidate resumes.

Member and non-member employers can access eJobs by logging in to www.apsanet.org with their DSP login. Non-member employers: for more information on the DSP, contact dsp@apsanet.org.

Printed Job Listings in the PS: Political Science and Politics Supplement

APSA prints eJobs job listings in a supplement to the APSA journal PS: Political Science & Politics. The supplement accompanies PS each quarter (January, April, July and October) and includes job listings, upcoming conferences, tables of contents of forthcoming APSA journals, and other news in the profession. The print listing is free of charge to employers who post job listings on eJobs.
