Africa Bibliography

The leading resource, now online

The annual Africa Bibliography, long considered the leading bibliographic guide to all works in African studies, has been digitised and launched as a fully-searchable online database, in consultation with Africanist librarians.

Individual membership

Membership in the African Studies Association membership is open to scholars, students, and professionals from around the world who have an interest in Africa.

ASA members enjoy many benefits, including:

- A subscription to African Studies Review, a multi-disciplinary scholarly journal, which publishes original research and analyses of Africa and book reviews, as well as a digital subscription to *History in Africa, an annual journal that features textual analysis and criticism, historiographical essays, bibliographical essays, archival reports and articles on the role of theory and non-historical data in historical investigation
- A discounted registration fee to attend the Annual Meeting
- A listing in the ASA Online Membership Directory with an advanced search feature to easily locate ASA colleagues and individuals
- An opportunity to vote to elect officers and members of the Board of Directors
- An opportunity to serve on ASA Committees
- The ability to nominate individuals for the Distinguished Africanist Award

*Print copies of History in Africa are available to members for purchase at the additional price indicated below.

Membership can be purchased securely online at <https://myasa.africanstudies.org/login>. If you have any problems accessing the system, please contact members@africanstudies.org.
