The Wiley-Blackwell Management and Organization Review

Young Scholar Award

MOR gives this award every two years, at the biennial conference of the International Association for Chinese Management Research, to recognize a young scholar's contributions to the fields of managerial and organizational research. The award goes to a young author who is the sole or first author of his/her article in Management and Organization Review. Eligible authors must have received their degrees no more than five years prior to their article's publication or was a Ph.D. student at the time of publication. The winner receives a 12 month complimentary membership to the IACMR, including a subscription to Management and Organizational Review (print and online); USD $2000.00; a plaque; and public recognition at the Conference.

2010 Young Scholar Award Winner

Robert E. White, Arizona State University (with co-authors
Robert E. Hoskisson, Daphne W. Yiu, and Garry D. Bruton)

'Employment and Market Innovation in Chinese Business
Group Affiliated Firms: The Role of Group Control Systems,'
MOR 4:2 225–256.

2008 Young Scholar Award Winner

Wenhong Chen, Duke University

'Does the Colour of the Cat Matter?: The Red Hat Strategy in China's Private Enterprises,' MOR 3:1 55–80.

Max Boisot – In memoriam
(1943–2011)

The sudden passing of Max Boisot has left many of us who knew Max or knew of his tremendous impact on the field of management shocked and saddened. Max was an instrumental figure in the establishment of MOR and contributed as an author, reviewer, and Editorial Board member. He was an author of some of the earliest papers on China's economic reform and its implications for organizing and the organization. We will miss Max deeply as a caring person, sophisticated scholar, and a world-class professional. The thoughts and prayers of the MOR editorial team go out to his family.

Contributions in Max's memory can be made to The Lymphoma Research Trust of UCL (University College London) Cancer Trials Centre (<http://www.lymphoma-research-trust.org.uk/>).
