CONTENTS

PART I (FEBRUARY 1959)

	PAGE
BENZIE, D., BOYNE, A. W., DALGARNO, A. C., DUCKWORTH, J. and HILL, R. Studies of the skeleton of the sheep. III. The relationship between phosphorous intake and resorption and repair of the skeleton in pregnancy and lactation. (With Plates 1-3 and Two Text-figures)	1
GRAHAM, N. McC., WAINMAN, F. W., BLAXTER, K. L. and ARMSTRONG, D. G. Environmental temperature, energy metabolism and heat regulation in sheep. I. Energy metabolism in closely clipped sheep. (With Seven Text-figures)	13
BLAXTER, K. L., GRAHAM, N. McC., WAINMAN, F. W. and ARMSTRONG, D. G. Environmental temperature, energy metabolism and heat regulation in sheep. II. The partition of heat losses in closely clipped sheep. (With Ten Text-figures)	25
BLAXTER, K. L., GRAHAM, N. McC. and WAINMAN, F. W. Environmental temperature energy metabolism and heat regulation in sheep. III. The metabolism and thermal exchanges of sheep with fleeces. (With Five Text-figures)	41
TANEJA, C. C. Sweating in cattle. II. Cutaneous evaporative loss measured from limited areas and its relationship with skin, rectal, and air temperatures. (With Plate 4 and Five Text-figures)	50
TANEJA, G. C. Sweating in cattle. III. Mechanism of water transportation through the skin. (With One Text-figure)	62
TANEJA, G. C. Sweating in cattle. IV. Control of sweat glands secretion. (With Three Text-figures)	66
SMITH, R. H. The development and function of the rumen in milk-fed calves. (With Five Text-figures)	72
ANNISON, E. F. and LEWIS, D. Thyroid metabolism in sheep during pregnancy. (With Two Text-figures)	79
MANSOUR, A. M. The hormonal control of ovulation in the immature lamb. (With Plates 5 and 6)	87
BUNTING, E. S. and WILLEY, L. A. Problems involved in the cultivation of maize for fodder and ensilage. I. The choice of variety. (With Eight Text-figures)	95
CARTER, H. B. and TIBBITS, JANET P. Post-natal growth changes in the skin follicle population of the New Zealand Romney and N-type sheep. (With Plates 7-9 and Eight Text-figures)	106
LEECH, F. B. and SELLERS, K. C. A second survey of losses associated with pregnancy and parturition in Yorkshire sheep	117
BELL, F. R. Preference thresholds for taste discrimination in goats. (With Plate 10 and Four Text-figures)	125

PART 2 (APRIL 1959)

	PAGE
FREER, M. The utilization of irrigated pastures by dairy cows. I. A comparison of rotational and strip grazing. (With Two Text-figures)	129
BREMNER, J. M. and HARADA, T. Release of ammonium and organic matter from soil by hydrofluoric acid and effect of hydrofluoric acid treatment on extraction of soil organic matter by neutral and alkaline reagents	137
BREMNER, J. M. Determination of fixed ammonium in soil	147
STODDART, J. L. The effects of gibberellic acid upon growth habit and heading in late-flowering red clover (Trifolium pratense L.) (With Plates 11–13)	161
TANEJA, G. C. Sweating in cattle. V. Sweat prints. (With Plate 14)	168
MORGAN, J. T., GREEN, F. R., COSTAIN, R. A. and WILLIAMS, E. F. Growth, economy of feed utilization and carcass quality in pigs in relation to dietary protein level and antibiotic administration	170
THOMPSON, A. and RAVEN, A. M. The availability of iron in certain grass, clover and herb species. I. Perennial ryegrass, cocksfoot and timothy. (With Two Text-figures)	177
DAVEY, L. A. and BRIGGS, C. A. E. The normal flora of the bovine rumen. Bacteriological evaluation of rumen contents by the examination of cud. (With One Text-figure)	187
GRIFFITHS, D. J., ROWLANDS, D. G. and PEREGRINE, W. T. H. Cytogenetic relationships of certain artificial and natural species of Avena . (With Plates 15–18)	189
WIDDOWSON, F. V., PENNY, A., WILLIAMS, R. J. B. and COOKE, G. W. The value of calcium nitrate for spring-sown cereals	200
TAYLOR, T. G. The magnesium of bone mineral. (With One Text-figure)	207
SQUIBB, ROBERT L. Relation of diurnal temperature and humidity ranges to egg production and feed efficiency of New Hampshire hens. (With Five Text-figures)	217
BRAUDE, R., MITCHELL, K. G., CRAY, A. S., FRANKE, A. and SEDGWICK, P. H. Comparison of different levels of all-meal feeding for fattening pigs. (With One Text-figure)	223
JONES, D. J. C. Studies of the chemical composition of kales and rapes. I. The kales	230
JONES, D. J. C. Studies of the chemical composition of kales and rapes. II. The rapes	238
WATTS, P. S. Effects of oxalic acid ingestion by sheep. I. Small doses to chaff fed sheep	244
WATTS, P. S. Effects of oxalic acid ingestion by sheep. II. Large doses to sheep on different diets	250
LOW, A. J. and ARMITAGE, E. R. Irrigation of grassland. (With Plate 19 and Three Text-figures)	256
CHUBB, L. G. and ROWELL, J. G. Counting blood cells of chickens. (With Two Text-figures)	263

PART 3 (JUNE 1959)

	PAGE
LANGER, R. H. M. A study of growth in swards of timothy and meadow fescue. II. The effects of cutting treatments. (With Seven Text-figures)	273
HUNTER, G. L. A contribution to the study of the problem of low fertility among Merino ewes in South Africa. (With Six Text-figures)	282
BIANCA, W. Acclimatization of calves to a hot dry environment. (With Eight Text-figures)	296
BIANCA, W. Acclimatization of calves to a hot humid environment. (With Six Text-figures)	305
BUNTING, E. S. and WILLEY, L. A. The cultivation of maize for fodder and ensilage. Part II. The effect of changes in plant density. (With Twelve Text-figures)	313
GATHERUM, D. P., HARRINGTON, G. and POMEROY, R. W. Visual judgements of quality in meat. I. Assessments of the proportion of lean to fat in bacon from photographs of the cut side. (With Plate 20 and Six Text-figures)	320
COOPER, P. H. and TYLER, C. Some effects of bran and cellulose on the water relationships in the digesta and faeces of pigs. Part I. The effects of including bran and two forms of cellulose in otherwise normal rations. (With Two Text-figures)	332
COOPER, P. H. and TYLER, C. Some effects of bran and cellulose on the water relationships in the digesta and faeces of pigs. Part II. The effects of adding different levels of fibrous cellulose to a highly digestible purified ration. (With Three Text-figures)	340
COOPER, P. H. and TYLER, C. Some effects of bran and cellulose on the water relationships in the digesta and faeces of pigs. Part III. The effect of level of water intake and level of cellulose in the ration on the dry-matter content of the faeces. (With Three Text-figures)	348
WALKER, D. M. The development of the digestive system of the young animal. I. Tissue weights, dry matter of tissues, total acidity and chloride content of stomach contents in the young pig	352
WALKER, D. M. The development of the digestive system of the young animal. II. Carbohy-drase enzyme development in the young pig. (With Five Text-figures)	357
BOLTON, W. The efficiency of food utilization for egg production by pullets and yearling hens. (With Two Text-figures)	364
SMITH, C. A. Studies on the Northern Rhodesia Hyparrhenia veld. Part I. The grazing be-haviour of indigenous cattle grazed at light and heavy stocking rates. (With Three Text-figures)	369
MACKIE, A. M. and NISBET, A. MYFANWY. The histology of the bovine muzzle. (With Plate 21 and Two Text-figures)	376
BIANCA, W. The effect of clipping the coat on various reactions of calves to heat. (With Five Text-figures)	380
BOYD, D. A. The effect of farmyard manure on fertilizer responses	384
AVERILL, R. L. W. and ROWSON, L. E. A. Attempts at storage of sheep ova at low tem-peratures	392
NAIR, G. G. K. and MEHTA, B. V. Studies on zinc deficiency symptoms in some common crops of Gujarat (India)	396

THE EMPIRE JOURNAL OF EXPERIMENTAL AGRICULTURE

THIS JOURNAL offers agricultural research workers a medium for disseminating the records and results of their investigations on the feeding and management of live stock, cultivation and manuring of crops, trial of farm machinery, agricultural economics, and experimental techniques.

Vol. XXVII. No. 106

CONTENTS

April 1959

D. O. NORRIS: Rhizobium Affinities of African Species of Trifolium. D. A. PANOS: The Growth of Legumes in Conjunction with Phosphate Fertilizer, as a Means of Increasing Soil Fertility and Agricultural Productivity, in Greece. N. M. WILLIAMS, G. R. PEARCE, M. DELANEY and D. E. TRIBE: The Growth and Appetite of Sheep on High-fibre Low-protein Diets Supplemented with Urea and Molasses. A. WAHHAB and R. AHMAD: Manuring of Cotton in West Pakistan. I. P. K. S. CLINTON: Effects of Dressings with Fungicides and Insecticides on American Cotton in the Sudan Central Rainlands. H. A. KARAM: Some Factors Affecting Lamb Mortality in Rahmani Sheep. J. M. L. KOWAL: The Effect of Spacing on the Environment and Performance of Cacao under Nigerian Conditions. II. D. H. CONSTABLE and G. E. HODNETT: The Responses of Hevea Brasiliensis to Fertilizers in Ceylon. D. E. EYLES and S. J. COWLI-SHAW: Simplified Rations for Poultry at Pasture.

The Journal of Agricultural Science is issued every other month in parts of about 120 pages with plates and figures, three parts constituting a volume. Two volumes yearly.

Quotations for available back volumes and parts may be obtained on application to the Cambridge University Press.

Papers for publication should be typewritten or written in a very legible hand, and may be sent to DR J. HAMMOND, School of Agriculture, Cambridge, or to the associate Editors. Other communications should be addressed to the University Press, Cambridge.

If Plates in excess of one per 24 pages of text or coloured plates are submitted the author may be asked to bear the cost of such Plates.

Bibliography should be given under the heading of 'References' in the following form:

Surname of authors (in alphabetical order), initials, date of publication (in brackets), title of Journal (abbreviated according to the World List of Scientific Periodicals), volume and page of reference. In the text a reference should be quoted by the author's name and date (in brackets).

All names of Journals and books should be in italics.

Contributors will receive twenty-five copies of their papers free.

The subscription price, payable in advance, is 60s. net per volume (post free); single numbers 25s. net. Subscriptions may be sent to any bookseller, or to The Cambridge University Press, Bentley House, 200 Euston Road, London, N.W. 1.

Subscription price in the U.S.A. is $10.00 per volume; single number $4.25. Enquiries should be addressed to the Cambridge University Press, American Branch, 32 East 57th Street, New York 22, N.Y.
