LEGAL STUDIES

from Chicago

Trading Democracy for Justice

Criminal Convictions and the Decline of Neighborhood Political Participation

Traci Burch

"Traci Burch is one of a handful of political scientists working to shed new light on one of the most important problems of our time: the political demobilization that occurs in poor minority neighborhoods as a result of the unprecedented incarceration of young black men. The book is an outstanding achievement."

—Mark Peffley, University of Kentucky

Paper $25.00

A Student's Guide to Law School

What Counts, What Helps, and What Matters

Andrew B. Ayers

"Andrew Ayers has provided a straightforward and witty guide to getting the most out of legal education for the right reasons: to develop legal competence, cultivate professional judgment, and become a lawyer of credit. An admirable book."

—William M. Sullivan, coauthor of Educating Lawyers

Paper $18.00

Negotiating in Civil Conflict

Constitutional Construction and Imperfect Bargaining in Iraq

Haider Ala Hamoudi

"A rich account of constitutional politics in Iraq informed by the author's firsthand knowledge of the major events. In contrast with the view that emphasizes the United States as the dominant actor in shaping and implementing the Iraqi Constitution, Haider Ala Hamoudi gives emphasis to local agency, arguing persuasively that the Constitution was adapted to meet local needs."

—Tom Ginsburg, University of Chicago

Paper $35.00
