Aims and Scope

The Journal of Radiotherapy in Practice is a peer-reviewed journal covering all of the current modalities specific to clinical oncology and radiotherapy. The Journal aims to publish quality research from a wide range of styles and encourage debate and the exchange of information and opinion from within the field of radiotherapy practice and clinical oncology. The Journal also aims to encourage technical evaluations and case studies as well as equipment reviews that will be of interest to an international radiotherapy market.

The Journal of Radiotherapy in Practice aims to provide an easily available forum for education matters by publishing regular high-standard Continuing Professional Development articles.

The Journal of Radiotherapy in Practice will include research papers, scientific papers, technical articles, case studies and review articles relevant to anyone with an interest in clinical oncology and radiotherapy including: research; treatment planning; radiotherapy techniques/protocols; portal imaging; continuing professional development; education and training; new technology; networking.

The Editor-in-Chief welcomes any suggestions or submission of manuscripts to the journal. Please refer to the online Instructions to Authors available at www.journals.cambridge.org/jrp. Please write to the Editor-in-Chief if you require further assistance in submitting an article for publication.
