Polar Record (ISSN 0032-2474) is published four times yearly — in January, April, July, and October — the four issues making a volume. First published in January 1931, it appeared twice yearly up to July 1954 and three times yearly up to September 1987. Scholarly contributions are invited on virtually all subjects of polar interest. For information on contributions, see 'Instructions for authors,' in Polar Record 30 (172): 72–74, January 1994.
