Islamic Architecture in Cairo

An Introduction

by

DORIS BEHRENS-ABOUSEIF

Islamic Architecture in Cairo covers the genesis and evolution of the architecture of Cairo from the Islamic conquest up to the reign of Muhammad Ali, in the first half of the 19th century.

A general history of the city of Cairo, a detailed study of architectural development throughout its Islamic pre-modern history, as well as a chapter on domestic architecture, compose the first — historic — part of the book. The second part presents individual descriptions of a selection of more than 60 important and interesting monuments of Cairo. 132 plates and 32 figures illustrate the text. Most of the photographs were made especially for this book.
