Legal Studies is the journal of the Society of Legal Scholars (formerly the Society of Public Teachers of Law) and is distributed free to all members of the Society.

Aims and Scope

Legal Studies seeks to publish work which truly represents the broad range of interests across all legal scholarship, including doctrinal, conceptual, and socio-legal analyses. The journal welcomes contributions from all those who wish to reach a broad international and UK readership.

Inquiries regarding distribution

Inquiries from members and patrons of the Society in respect of the distribution of Legal Studies and their instructions in respect of changes of address should be sent to the Honorary Treasurer, Professor Peter Alldrige, School of Law, Queen Mary, University of London, Mile End Road, London E1 4NS, e-mail s1streasurer@cardiff.ac.uk.

Legal Studies should be cited as: (2012) 31 LS

Advice on the submission and preparation of manuscripts and a copy of the house 'style guide' can be found at wileyonlinelibrary.com/journal/lest. Contact: John Pearson in the Editorial Office (john.pearson@manchester.ac.uk).

Articles contained in this journal may be freely copied by members of the SLS for educational purposes only. Scholars, researchers and teachers of law who would like to join the Society or know more about its activities should consult the SLS website: <http://www.legalscholars.ac.uk>.
