THE BEST IN ARCHAEOLOGY

Now in paperback...

Graecia Capta

The Landscapes of Roman Greece
Susan E. Alcock

Tracing social and economic developments from 200 B.C. to A.D. 200, this study emphasizes the use of archaeological surface survey data, a form of evidence only recently available to examine the countryside and demographic change of the ancient world.

The Phoenicians and the West

Politics, Colonies and Trade
Maria Eugenia Aubet

"This is a good modern synthesis of archaeological, literary, and epigraphical data for Phoenicia's most expansionary phase.... [E]xcellent and worthy work.

—American Anthropologist

Between the eighth and the sixth centuries BC, the Phoenicians established the first trading system to encompass the length of the Mediterranean basin. This analysis of archaeological and historical data updates our understanding of their colonies' relationship to local Iron Age communities.

56598-7 Paperback $22.95

Classic Maya Political History

Hieroglyphic and Archaeological Evidence
T. Patrick Culbert, Editor

"Rarely does one have the opportunity to read and review a book that must be described as 'uniformly excellent and exciting.' That this volume sums up and makes known to the outside world an amazing decade of progress in Maya scholarship will not be denied. Of the 12 contributors and 13 chapters in this collection, not one is mediocre or unimportant."

The Bronze Age of Southeast Asia

Charles Higham

This book addresses the controversy over the origins of the Bronze Age of Southeast Asia. Higham provides a systematic and regional presentation of the current evidence, and suggests that the adoption of metallurgy in the region followed a period of growing exchange with China. He then traces the development of Bronze Age cultures, identifying regionality and innovation, and suggesting how and why distinct cultures developed.

The Return of Cultural Treasures

Second Edition

Jeanette Greenfield

Introduction by Magnus Magnusson

"...a very valuable and important work. [Greenfield] presents fully researched discussions of scores of cases argued over many years concerning national requests for 'repatriation' and 'return' of art and artifacts allegedly or manifestly illegally removed. The good index allows the book to be consulted for specific cases."

Europe in the Neolithic

The Creation of New Worlds

New Edition

Alasdair Whittle

Reviewing the latest archaeological evidence on Neolithic Europe from 7,000-2,500 B.C., this revised version of Neolithic Europe: A Survey reflects radical changes in evidence and in interpretive approaches over the past decade.
