

Bridge Across Broken Time

Chinese and Jewish Cultural Memory
Vera Schwarcz

From her unique standpoint as China scholar and daughter of survivors of the Holocaust, Schwarcz uncovers resonances between the narratives of Chinese intellectuals recovering from the trauma of the Cultural Revolution and the halting tales of her own parents.

"This is a beautifully written, reflective personal essay on the role of memory for those whose history has been fragmented by trauma. Original and moving."

Expanding Humanity's Vision of God

A JOHN TEMPLETON FOUNDATION PROGRAM

*A program of prizes for newly published essays and sermons
on the theme: "Expanding humanity's vision of God –
can we have a more comprehensive, more exploratory,
more humble theology?"*

How has our understanding of our world and our place in the universe changed in recent decades through the momentous discoveries of science?

Do recent developments in the philosophy of science, which place limitations on scientific knowing, provide a more level playing field?

The John Templeton Foundation is seeking the best expressions of new theological thinking on the part of theologians, ministers, priests, rabbis, imams, leaders of other faith traditions, scientists, educators, policy-makers, artists, and writers.

In return for your participation, we offer the following prizes for the best submissions:

70 prizes of $3,500

10 prizes of $5,000

$10,000 grand prize

The deadline for receipt of submissions is November 1, 1999.

*Winners will be announced
January 31, 2000.*

CALL FOR EXEMPLARY PAPERS ON HUMILITY IN THEOLOGY

To encourage scholarly research on matters of both spiritual and scientific significance, the John Templeton Foundation invites scholars to submit published papers on topics regarding the constructive interaction of:

- Theology and the natural sciences
- Religion and the medical sciences, or
- Religion and the behavioral sciences.

These papers must proceed from professional scholarship and display a spirit of intellectual humility, a respect for varied theological traditions, and an attitude of open-minded inquiry into the varied ways in which theology/religion and the empirical sciences can be mutually informative. Papers must have been published or accepted for publication in a peer-reviewed journal or similarly selective scholarly publication, be between 3,000 and 10,000 words in length, and be accompanied by a 600-word précis (in English, even if the paper is not).

*Prizes ranging from $500 to $3000 will be awarded in November 1999.
The deadline for submission of papers is June 1, 1999.*

SCIENCE & RELIGION
COURSE DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

PART OF THE 1999 SCIENCE & RELIGION COURSE PROGRAM

This program, funded by the John Templeton Foundation, grants $10,000 awards in a Course Competition for outstanding college, university, and seminary courses, and also offers a series of eight workshops on science and religion, course development, and pedagogy in North America and England. Summer workshops are advanced sessions designed to examine frontier issues in science and religion, assume familiarity with science-religion history and pedagogy issues, and will include presentations on some of the 1999 winning courses. (Introductory winter workshops, designed to assist in the development and enhancement of science and religion course syllabi and teaching methodologies, are held each January.) A registration fee of U.S. $100 is required to reserve one of the 75 spaces available in each workshop. Registration after the deadline below is based on availability.
