Contents

		duction: The UN Security Council's Four Defining Fields
	Chris	tian Marxsen po	1ge 1
	I.	The UN Security Council's Functions in the Peace and Security Architecture	1
	II.	The Changing Political Environment	3
	III.	Past Responses	7
		A. Formal Reform	7
		B. Empowering Other UN Organs	9
		C. Informal Mechanisms	11
		D. Authority of External Actors	12
	IV. Trajectories of and Tensions in the Security Council's
		Operation	13
	V.	Three Voices in a Trialogue	14
1.		UN Security Council: Maintaining Peace during obal Power Shift
	Cong	yan Cai	18
	I.	Introduction	18
	II.	The UN Security Council: Between Politics and Law	24
		A. The Relationship between Politics and Law at the International Level	25
		B. The Politics of Legal Privileges and the Great Powers	29
		C. Legal Restraints on the Great Powers	31
		D. A Politicised Institution and Legalised Actions	33
	III.	How Power Politics Influence the Workings of the Security
		Council	42
		A. The Cold War	42

Contents

		B. The 'New World Order'	48
		C. A 'New Cold War'?	53
		D. The Security Council for International Peace – or for Peace between Only the Great Powers?	60
	IV.	Novel Threats and the Response of the Security Council	61
		A. International Public Health Crisis	62
		B. Extremism	64
		C. Cyber-Attacks	68
	V.	China's Ascension and the UN Security Council	72
		A. A General Observation	75
		B. How the New Power Constellation Influences China's
		Behaviour in the Security Council	79
		C. How Chinese International Legal Policies Influence
		China's Security Council Behaviour	82
		D. China's Normative Role in the Security Council	87
	VI.	The Future Trajectory of Security Council Reforms:
		Revisiting the Universal and Regional Approaches	98
		A. The Universal Approach	99
		B. The Regional Approach	103
	VII.	Conclusions	107
	, 11.	Conclusions	10 /
2.			107
2.		JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional	10 /
2.	The U Stren	JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional	109
2.	The U Stren	JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik	109
2.	The U Stren Lariss	J N Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik Introduction	,
2.	The U Stren Lariss I.	JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik	109 109
2.	The U Stren Lariss I.	JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik Introduction An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security Council	109
2.	The U Stren Lariss I. II.	J N Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik Introduction An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security	109 109 115
2.	The U Stren Lariss I. II. III.	JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik Introduction An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security Council Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment	109 109 115
2.	The U Stren Lariss I. II. III.	JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik Introduction An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security Council Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive	109 109 115 118
2.	The U Stren Lariss I. II. III.	JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik Introduction An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security Council Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive Processes	109 109 115 118
2.	The U Stren Lariss I. II. III.	<ul> <li>JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth <ul> <li>a van den Herik</li> </ul> </li> <li>Introduction <ul> <li>An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security</li> <li>Council</li> <li>Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment</li> <li>Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive</li> <li>Processes</li> <li>A. Resolution 1973 and Wavering International <ul> <li>Consensus</li> </ul> </li> <li>B. Proposals to Refine Decision-Making and Discourse</li> </ul></li></ul>	109 109 115 118 123
2.	The U Stren Lariss I. II. III.	<ul> <li>JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth <ul> <li>a van den Herik</li> </ul> </li> <li>Introduction <ul> <li>An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security</li> <li>Council</li> <li>Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment</li> <li>Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive</li> <li>Processes</li> <li>A. Resolution 1973 and Wavering International <ul> <li>Consensus</li> </ul> </li> <li>B. Proposals to Refine Decision-Making and Discourse on the Use of Force</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	109 109 115 118 123
2.	The U Stren Lariss I. II. III.	<ul> <li>JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth <ul> <li>a van den Herik</li> </ul> </li> <li>Introduction <ul> <li>An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security</li> <li>Council</li> <li>Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment</li> <li>Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive</li> <li>Processes</li> <li>A. Resolution 1973 and Wavering International <ul> <li>Consensus</li> </ul> </li> <li>B. Proposals to Refine Decision-Making and Discourse</li> </ul></li></ul>	109 109 115 118 123 123
2.	The U Stren, Lariss I. II. III. IV.	<ul> <li>JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth <ul> <li>a van den Herik</li> </ul> </li> <li>Introduction <ul> <li>An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security</li> <li>Council</li> <li>Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment</li> <li>Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive</li> <li>Processes</li> <li>A. Resolution 1973 and Wavering International <ul> <li>Consensus</li> </ul> </li> <li>B. Proposals to Refine Decision-Making and Discourse <ul> <li>on the Use of Force</li> </ul> </li> <li>Sanctions Outside and Inside the UN Institutional </li> </ul></li></ul>	109 109 115 118 123 123
2.	The U Stren, Lariss I. II. III. IV.	<ul> <li>JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik</li> <li>Introduction</li> <li>An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security Council</li> <li>Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive Processes</li> <li>A. Resolution 1973 and Wavering International Consensus</li> <li>B. Proposals to Refine Decision-Making and Discourse on the Use of Force</li> <li>Sanctions Outside and Inside the UN Institutional Framework</li> <li>A. Non-UN Sanctions as a Challenge to the Security</li> </ul>	109 109 115 118 123 123 131
2.	The U Stren, Lariss I. II. III. IV.	<ul> <li>JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth <ul> <li>a van den Herik</li> </ul> </li> <li>Introduction</li> <li>An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security Council</li> <li>Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment</li> <li>Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive</li> <li>Processes</li> <li>A. Resolution 1973 and Wavering International Consensus</li> <li>B. Proposals to Refine Decision-Making and Discourse on the Use of Force</li> <li>Sanctions Outside and Inside the UN Institutional Framework</li> <li>A. Non-UN Sanctions as a Challenge to the Security Council's Prerogative?</li> </ul>	109 109 115 118 123 123 131
2.	The U Stren, Lariss I. II. III. IV.	<ul> <li>JN Security Council: A Reflection on Institutional gth a van den Herik</li> <li>Introduction</li> <li>An Institutionalist Perspective: Limits to the Security Council</li> <li>Bolstering the Security Council's Institutional Environment Disputed Uses of Force and the Importance of Inclusive Processes</li> <li>A. Resolution 1973 and Wavering International Consensus</li> <li>B. Proposals to Refine Decision-Making and Discourse on the Use of Force</li> <li>Sanctions Outside and Inside the UN Institutional Framework</li> <li>A. Non-UN Sanctions as a Challenge to the Security</li> </ul>	109 109 115 118 123 123 131

$\cap$
Co	nte	nts

	VI.	Security Council Action on Terrorism and Extremism:
		Stretching Prerogatives beyond Breaking Point?	169
V	VII.	Future Trajectories and Unconventional Global
		Threats	175
V	/III.	Concluding Reflections	181
~ ′	The I	UN Security Council: Between Centralism and Regionalism
-		ijana Maluwa	186
	'
	I.	Introduction	186
	II.	The United Nations and Regional Organisations:
		Partnering for the Maintenance of Peace	191
		A. Historical Debates of Centralism versus Regionalism	191
		B. Partnership Peacekeeping as a Return of Regionalism	192
		C. Relevance of the International Rule of Law in the Security Council's Operations and Decision-Making
		Processes	194
	III.	The Security Council's Practice in Selected Partnership	6
		Peace Operations with the African Union	196
		A. Article 4(h) of the Constitutive Act of the African Union and the Primacy of the Security Council	197
		B. The Security Council, the African Union, and the Libyan Conflict of 2011	203
		C. China's Position in the Security Council
		Regarding UN Peacekeeping in Africa	231
		D. Russia's Rising Presence in Africa	238
		E. AU–UN Collaboration in Fighting International
		Terrorism through Peace Operations	242
	IV.	Continuing Challenges, Future Trajectories,
		and the Need for Reform	254
		A. The African Quest for Permanent Seats
		on the Security Council	254
		B. The Russian Invasion of Ukraine: Ramifications
		for African Perceptions of the Security Council	258
		C. The Problem of Security Council Inaction
		and Failure to Decide	264
		D. Unconventional Global Threats: The Climate
		Crisis and Climate Security	268
	V.	Conclusion	274

Conclusion: Power, Procedures, and Periphery - The UN Security

Council in the Ukraine War Anne Peters 278 I. Introduction 278 II. Law and Power 279 Procedure and Substance III 285 The Power and Powerlessness of Procedures А. 285 B. Checks and Balances, and Accountability 287 C. Procedural Arguments against Manifestly Obstructive Vetoes 289 IV. Centre and Periphery 291

v .		291
V.	Conclusions: The Embedded Security Council	294

299