A CASEBOOK ON THE ROMAN LAW OF DELICT

Bruce W. Frier

"Frier's Casebook is the perfect introduction to Roman legal reasoning. The student is led not to memorize doctrines but to participate in the process of developing principles to use in analyzing concrete situations. Both the achievements and the failures of the Roman jurists come alive under Frier's probing discussion questions, and many fascinating social realities become concrete. It is hard to imagine a textbook which makes teaching so much fun for teacher and student alike."

-- Roger S. Bagnall, Columbia University

Following the format of the German casebooks of Herbert Hausmaninger on Roman contract and property law, Frier's Casebook presents 171 cases on delict. Each case includes a Latin text with translation followed by questions and problems arising from the text; the method leads the student to an active understanding of Roman law. The book includes a glossary of technical terms, brief biographies of jurists, and recommendations for further reading as well as full bibliography and indices.

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

31–34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP

President: Sir David Hunt, KCMG, OBE

THE Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London

1. A Library of some 65,000 volumes, with c. 450 current periodicals.
2. Over 5,500 coloured slides covering a wide variety of subjects, sets of slides with lecture texts and film-strips.

Books and slides can be sent to Members by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four general meetings, with lectures, are held in London annually and there are other meetings in different parts of the country.

Subscribers receive the Society's two annual publications: The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, illustrations, and book reviews; Archaeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of fresh discoveries in Greece and Greek lands, with bulletins announcing important new acquisitions by museums in Britain.

These two periodicals are on sale to the general public.

The annual subscription to the Society is £20.00. The composition fee for life-membership is £100.00 for those over 65 years of age, after 5 years membership. The subscription for Libraries is £26.00 and for Student Associates £10.00. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or inquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary. Telephone: 01-387 7495.

The Classical Association

THE main aims of the Classical Association are to promote and sustain interest in classical studies, to maintain their rightful position in universities and schools, and to give scholars and teachers opportunities of meeting and discussing their problems. It organizes an annual conference, lasting four or five days, in a university centre, and sponsors some thirty branches, most of which hold Greek and Latin Reading Competitions for Schools. Its activities are fully reported in its annual Proceedings, issued free to all members.

The present membership of the Association is just under 4,000. Membership is open both to individuals and to institutions at an annual subscription of £3; life composition for individual members, £63. Members may obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review £13, Quarterly £14; combined subscription, £24). Greece and Rome may also be obtained through the Association for an annual subscription of £11. Applications for membership and subscriptions for the journals (which should normally be received by 31st January in each year) should be addressed to the Treasurer, Mr. R. Wallace, Dept. Classics, University of Keele, Keele, Staffs. ST5 5BG.

The Association can also supply copies of the Index to the First Series of the Classical Review (price £1.50, post free) and of the last issue of The Year's Work in Classical Studies, covering the years 1945–47 (price £1, post free). These publications and details of the various occasional publications of the Association are obtainable from the Treasurer. Inquiries should be sent to either of the Joint Secretaries, Dr Malcolm Schofield, St John's College, Cambridge CB2 1TP, and Miss H. M. Jones, 20 Lowestoft Road, Watford, Herts WD2 5AX.

Slavery and Rebellion in the Roman World, 140 B.C. - 70 B.C.

By Keith R. Bradley

"This book should become a standard work on Roman slave resistance for scholars working on the general history of slavery or comparative studies. It fills a real need."

— Myles McDonnell

Bradley's work carefully describes and analyzes three slave rebellions of the period (the most memorable led by the gladiator Spartacus) and provides an original analysis of the rebellions against the broad background of modern slave resistance.
