Rosenne's Law and Practice of the International Court: 1920-2015 (4 Volume Set) Fifth Edition

Malcolm N. Shaw QC, University of Cambridge

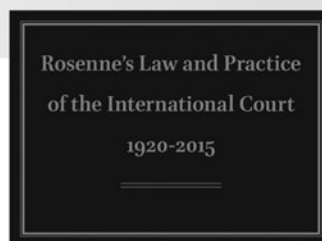

The popularity of his monumental and definitive works established Shabtai Rosenne as the undisputed expert on the International Court of Justice's law and practice of his time. Irrefutably the leading work on the court, previous editions of Rosenne's Law and Practice of the International Court have influenced generations of legal scholars, practitioners, judges, and students alike. The Fifth Edition, by Malcolm N. Shaw, combines his expertise as both an academic and practitioner to bring this monumental resource up-to-date while retaining Rosenne's distinctive voice, erudition, and rigorous objectives.

- November 2016
- Hardback (cxvii, 1976 pp)
- ISBN 9789004217980
- Price € 999 / US$ 1,199
- Imprint: Brill | Nijhoff

Rosenne's Law and Practice of the International Court: 1920-2015 is also available online:

- January 2017
- ISSN: 2468-5992
- Outright Purchase Price: € 1.699 / US$ 1,910
- brill.com/rose

Preserving Rosenne's focus on the caselaw of the Court, the Fifth Edition is supplemented with increased references to the leading academic literature, and, like the Fourth Edition, is divided into four substantive volumes:

- Volume I: The Court as one of the principal organs, in particular the principal judicial organ, of the United Nations. Diplomats and legal advisers who deal with matters relating to the Court on a political level and through different organs and offices of the United Nations will appreciate the full discussion of the diplomatic, political, and administrative aspects of the Court's affairs.
- Volume II: Jurisdiction and the treatment of jurisdictional matters by the Court. This volume also includes the Court's advisory jurisdiction, and how that work relates to complex legal issues in matters of major political import.
- Volume III: The Court's procedure.
- Volume IV: The work's final volume includes the English texts of the Charter of the United Nations, the Statute of the Court, the Practice Directions, the Rules of the Court, and a full set of indexes.

The Fifth Edition (updated through 2015) of Rosenne's Law and Practice of the International Court is an essential component of all international law libraries and an indispensable work for those practicing in the field, who will all appreciate access to the most recent work on the Court.

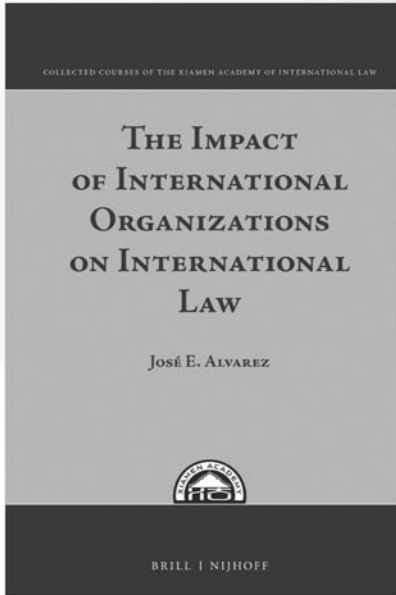

Professor Malcolm N. Shaw is a practicing Barrister at Essex Court Chambers. In addition to a varied and wide international practice, he also has an extensive career in the academy. He is currently a Senior Fellow at the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge.

Shabtai Rosenne was a distinguished lawyer, diplomat and teacher. He was the recipient of numerous prestigious awards including the Hague Prize for International Law in 2004.

Also available as Paperback

The Impact of International Organizations on International Law addresses how international organizations, particularly those within the UN system, have changed the forms, contents, and effects of international law. Professor Jose Alvarez considers the impact on sovereigns and actions taken by the contemporary Security Council, the UN General Assembly, and UN Specialized Agencies such as the World Health Organization. He considers the diverse functions performed by adjudicators – from judges of the International Criminal Court to arbitrators within the international investment regime. This text raises fundamental questions concerning the future of international law given the challenges international organizations pose to legal positivism, to traditional conceptions of sovereignty, and to the rule of law itself.

"A masterfully crafted piece of scholarship that engages with the very raison d'être of international organizations. Written by one of the leading authorities in the field, this book provides an insightful, perspicacious and to-the-point analysis of the impact of international organizations in today's international legal order while also shedding light on their weaknesses. A must read for all those whose work touches upon the law of international organization." Laurence Boisson de Chazournes, University of Geneva

"The role of Public International Law, rooted largely in decisions of or relating to international institutions, has been steadily, quietly re-shaping international economic relations and other links between states and regions for decades. There is no greater authority on international organizations within the American law community than Professor José Alvarez. This volume illuminates these trends as well as their limitations and vulnerabilities. It delivers a first-rate, incisive primer on the field." ~David M. Malone, Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations, Rector of the UN University

READERSHIP: Scholars and practitioners interested in International Organizations, Sovereignty, and public International Law.

José E. Alvarez is the Herbert and Rose Rubin Professor of International Law at New York University Law School. He served as President of the American Society of International Law (ASIL) from 2006-2008 and is currently the co-editor in chief of the American Journal of International Law.

SAY GOODBYE TO international law as you know it.

To outdated ideas about environmental regulation, global financial transactions, and the traditional hierarchies of domestic and international courts.

SAY HELLO TO international law as we know it, from a global perspective.

One which recognizes that there are fewer degrees of separation between issues once treated in isolation. Like foreign investment and human rights. Or a health crisis in one country and a patent holder on the other side of the globe.

AT THE FOREFRONT OF THIS PRACTICE IS COLUMBIA LAW SCHOOL through unique collaborations with governments, the U.N., regulatory agencies, and NGOs. On campus, you'll experience unparalleled programs in the future of warfare, global financial regulation and corporate law, and legal studies across Asia. Elsewhere, you'll find partnerships with a worldwide network of leading academic institutions and Columbia Global Centers.

And everywhere we are, you'll see pioneering legal scholarship building global paths toward freedom, peace, prosperity, and better governance.

THE DUBAI WORLD TRIBUNAL AND THE FINANCIAL CRISIS OF 2009: AN ANALYSIS

On December 13, Prof. Jayanth Krishnan presented a new report analyzing the circumstances surrounding Dubai World and the subsequent emergence of the Dubai World Tribunal. Co-authored by Harold Koster, former dean of the University of Dubai College of Law, the report evaluates the Tribunal's work, including the manner in which it has addressed both insolvency and non-insolvency cases, along with serving as a forum for sophisticated global lawyering.

Krishnan directs the Indiana University Maurer School of Law's Milt and Judi Stewart Center on the Global Legal Profession, which remains on the forefront of research of the profession in today's global economy.

Oxford Reports on International Law in Domestic Courts

(ILDC) turns 10 this year. ILDC was created in 2006 and was the first module launched of the Oxford Reports on International Law (ORIL) service. By collecting together and analysing court decisions on key issues of international law, it has revolutionised research on the interpretation and application of international law at the national level. ILDC now features over 100 judgments from nearly 100 countries. Under the editorship of André Nollkaemper and August Reinisch, as well as former editor Erika de Wet, a global network of reporters selects cases from their local jurisdictions, puts the decisions into context, and explains their impact. Over the past decade, ILDC has shown how international law works in practice and opened up new, exciting avenues of research.

ILDC Statistics

1,700 case reports

94 countries

ORIL has gone on to set new standards for currency and coverage of public international case law, reporting on international courts, domestic courts and ad hoc tribunals. Case reports contain the full text of each decision, headnote, as well as analytical commentary and English translations of a number of key non-English decisions. ORIL is now rightly regarded as a must-have resource for the international law researcher.

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

Geneva: study in the heart of Europe in a truly international environment

"The University of Geneva offers various international law courses at the postgraduate level in French and in English. In English it offers in addition several summer schools, a Certificate in Transnational Law (CTL) as well as four Masters in advanced studies (MAS) and one Executive Master. Students and professionals from around the world come to study in Geneva, the home of numerous international organizations, UN agencies, the ICRC and law firms active in international arbitration.

The CTL provides students with a chance to specialize, early in their career, in international legal affairs within one or two semesters. Students can tailor their studies according to their particular interests, be it public or private international law.

A new Geneva Master in European and International Governance (MEIG) offers a unique interdisciplinary learning experience combining European and international affairs, including possibilities for internship in the UN system.

The Geneva Academy of international Humanitarian Law and Human Rights, a joint venture of the Law School and the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, offers a new MAS on Transitional Justice, Human Rights and the Rule Law. International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights are taught in a MAS and an Executive Master offered by the Academy, covering in depth all areas of international law relating to armed conflicts.

The Geneva Master in International Dispute Settlement, which is equally offered jointly with the Graduate Institute gives students the opportunity to study all aspects of dispute settlement in the international arena, across the divide of public and private."

International Law at Iowa

For the past 40 years, Iowa Law has had an International and Comparative Law Program. We offer the LLM, two-year JD, SJD, as well as the traditional three-year JD. In any given year, over ten percent of our students are foreign and we host numerous international scholars for the semester or the year. Our library, one of the largest in an American law school, has over one million titles and continues to grow. Nearly one-third of our faculty are involved in the field of International and Comparative Law.
