MANDELSTAM

CLARENCE BROWN

The first critical study of the life and works of the great Russian poet. Professor Brown tells as much as will probably ever be known about Mandelstam's early years in the intellectual world of pre-revolutionary St. Petersburg. His treatment of Mandelstam's poetry is a full and thoughtful criticism, supported by extensive quotations in Russian and in English translation. $13.95

THE RUSSIAN CONSTITUTIONAL EXPERIMENT

Government and Duma 1907-1914

GEOFFREY A. HOSKING

"This book will be read with pleasure and profit by students of Russian czarism's last years. . . . Hosking analyzes dispassionately and, in my view, fairly, the substance, course, and achievement of Stolypin's notorious 'counterrevolution'. . . . This is a valuable addition to Russian historiography."—Library Journal $18.50

LEON TROTSKY AND THE POLITICS OF ECONOMIC ISOLATION

RICHARD B. DAY

Professor Day utilizes previously unexploited material from the Trotsky Archives in his controversial examination of Soviet Russia from 1917 to 1927. He concentrates on Russia's economic isolation and analyzes two vital factors: War Communism from 1918 to 1921 and the Trotsky-Stalin debate over the concept of Socialism in one country. $10.95

CZECHOSLOVAKIA BEFORE MUNICH

The German Minority Problem and British Appeasement Policy

J. W. BRUEGEL

In this chronological account based on extensive public and private records, Dr. Bruegel analyzes internal and international Czech-German relations and British foreign policy from 1918 on, shedding new light on the Munich crisis, the role of Chamberlain and the diplomatic staff and the ultimate sacrifice of Czechoslovakia. $14.95
