International Journal of Asian Studies

Published in association with the Institute for Advanced
Studies on Asia, University of Tokyo

Editor-in-Chief

Takeshi Hamashita, Ryukoku University, Kyoto, Japan

Managing Editors

Robert Chard, University of Tokyo, Japan

Akinobu Kuroda, University of Tokyo, Japan

The International Journal of Asian Studies (IJAS) is an interdisciplinary, English-language forum for research in the social sciences and humanities. IJAS examines Asia on a regional basis, emphasising patterns and tendencies that go beyond the borders of individual countries. While the journal covers all regions of Asia, the primary focus is on eastern Asia, that is, Korea, China, Taiwan, Vietnam and Japan. As well as encouraging contributions from western scholars, IJAS focuses attention on the work of Asian scholars, in order to encourage multi-directional communication across the international Asian studies community. IJAS includes both themed and general issues.

Itinerario

Published for the Leiden Institute for History

Editors

Alicia Schrikker, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Carolien Stolte, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Review Editor

Laura Cruz, Western Carolina University, USA

For over thirty three years Itinerario has provided a platform for scholars researching the history of European expansion in the context of colonialism between c. 1500 and 1950. Contributors are encouraged to take a global perspective and consider the international interaction of European countries from both a Western and non-Western viewpoint, analysing the impact of this interaction on World History in general. The journal also publishes a highly respected book review section, which covers around 100 monographs per volume.

The Journal of Modern African Studies

Editor

Paul Nugent, University of Edinburgh, UK

Leonardo A. Villalón, University of Florida, USA

The Journal of Modern African Studies offers a quarterly survey of developments in modern African politics and society. Its main emphasis is on current issues in African politics, economies, societies and international relations. It is intended not only for students and academic specialists, but also for general readers and practitioners with a concern for modern Africa, living and working both inside and outside the continent. Editorial policy avoids commitment to any political viewpoint or ideology, but aims at a fair examination of controversial issues in order to promote a deeper understanding of what is happening in Africa today. The journal also includes an invaluable book review section.

Modern Asian Studies

Modern Asian Studies promotes original, innovative, and rigorous research on the history, sociology, anthropology, and economics of modern Asia. Covering South Asia, Southeast Asia, China, Japan, and Korea, the journal is published in six parts each year. It welcomes articles which deploy inter-disciplinary and comparative research methods. Modern Asian Studies specializes in the publication of longer monographic essays based on path-breaking new research; it also carries substantial synoptic essays which illuminate the state of the broad field in fresh ways. Issues of the journal will occasionally contain a forum of articles on related themes. Responses to issues raised in the fora are welcomed by the Editor and will be subject to the usual review procedure. Substantial review articles will be commissioned to discuss important new books. The Book Review Editor also welcomes proposals for such reviews. Unsolicited review articles will be accepted on the basis of peer review. For full details on all submissions, refer to the Instructions for Contributors at <http://journals.cambridge.org/mas/ifc>

Submissions

Modern Asian Studies has moved to online submissions. Papers should be submitted via the following website <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ass>. If there are any difficulties please contact the editorial office at modernasianstudies@cambridge.org

Submission of an article will be taken to imply that it has not been previously published and that it is not on offer to any other publisher. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

The Editor welcomes expression of all shades of opinion, but responsibility for them rests with their author. The Editorial Board regrets that it is not able to relay reports for articles not accepted for publication.

All correspondence should be addressed to Dr Joya Chatterji at modernasianstudies@cambridge.org

Text and manuscript preparation

All articles (text and footnotes) must be clearly typed in single spacing throughout. The use of diacritical marks, italics, and capital letters should be kept to a minimum. All sources or references should be incorporated as footnotes, cited in full in the first instance, within the body of the footnote text. References repeated in the footnotes should be by author and short title. Spelling, dates, references, and footnote numbers should be checked for accuracy.

The title of the article, the author's name, affiliation, and corresponding email address, should be typed at the beginning of the article. An abstract of between 100 and 250 words summarizing the content of the article should be typed before the main text. Sub-headings must be used for long articles. Do not use Roman numerals to divide papers into sections.

Tables should be clearly laid out and numbered consecutively. Vertical lines between columns should be omitted. All figures and totals should be checked for accuracy.

Figures should be supplied final size as electronic files in either TIFF or EPS format, scanned at a minimum of 320dpi for black and white halftone, or colour artwork, at 1200 dpi for black and white line art, and at 800 dpi for combination artwork (line/halftone). They should be clearly numbered with an accompanying figure legend. Each figure should be cited at least once in the text. The spelling of place names should be consistent with that used in the text.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author must submit an electronic copy and should ensure that the final manuscript includes the following:

- Full title and short title of no more than 40 characters, including spaces (for running header)
- Author name, affiliation, and email address
- Abstract of 100–250 words
- Sub-section headings
- All figures and tables (with captions and consecutively numbered)

Proofs

Authors should note that no substantive alterations or additions can be made to first proofs, so should ensure that their Word document is thoroughly checked for accuracy before final submission.

Offprints

Each author will receive a PDF file of his or her published article.
