“an extraordinary job”

I, KRUPSKAYA

A NOVEL BY

Jane Barnes Casey

“I dare to call it a document, although it is frankly fiction, since the scholarship which has gone into it is so responsible. It represents a high order of truth.”—KURT VONNEGUT, JR.

“An extraordinary job . . . the book rings true in some strange, haunted way. A work of exceptional imaginative power . . . filled by sudden insights.”
—NANCY MILFORD

“I don't think I have ever read an historical novel . . . that succeeds any better.”
—PROF. HAROLD HARRIS, Kalamazoo College

Theory of International Law

G. I. TUNKIN

Translated by William E. Butler

The most profound and comprehensive study of international legal theory yet produced by a Soviet jurist. The author is widely credited in Soviet circles with developing the legal basis for peaceful coexistence in the 1950s. This book is the fullest statement of his views. $20.00

ANNOUNCES THE PUBLICATION OF THE HARD-COVER EDITION OF A NEW BOOK

Russian Emigré Literature

A Collection of Articles in Russian
With English Resumés

Edited by NIKOLAI P. POLTORATZKY

This volume consists of contributions by some 30 American, Canadian, and European scholars and a few outstanding Russian émigré men of letters and editors. There are five sections. The first deals with the development and general problems of Russian literature in exile, the second with major poets and prose writers, the third with literary scholarship and criticism, and the fourth with the contribution of main literary periodicals. The fifth contains English resumés of all articles. There are also brief sketches of the contributors and an Index of names.

viii + 414 pages. 24 × 16 cm. $10.00 per copy. Check or money order payable to the University of Pittsburgh. Please address all orders to: Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, Loeffler Building 119, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa. 15260.
