English Today

Editor

Clive Upton, Emeritus Professor, Leeds University

Associate Editors

Nicholas Groom, University of Birmingham, UK

Justyna Robinson, University of Sussex, UK

English Today provides accessible cutting-edge reports on all aspects of the language, including style, usage, dictionaries, literary language, plain English, the Internet and language teaching, in terms of British, American and the world's many other 'Englishes'. Its global readership includes linguists, journalists, broadcasters, writers, publishers, teachers, advanced students of the language and others with a professional or personal interest in communication. Its debates are vigorous, it's noted for its reader involvement, it's now in its third decade and remains unique in its scope and style.

Journal of Linguistics

The Journal of the Linguistics Association of Great Britain

Editors

Kersti Börjars, University of Manchester, UK

S.J. Hannahs, Newcastle University, UK

Associate Editors

Robert D. Borsley, University of Essex, UK

Helen de Hoop, Radboud University Nijmegen, The Netherlands

Journal of Linguistics has as its goal to publish articles that make a clear contribution to current debate in all branches of theoretical linguistics. The journal also provides an excellent survey of recent linguistics publications, with around thirty book reviews in each volume and regular review articles on major works marking important theoretical advances.

'For the two decades that I've been a faithful reader of the Journal of Linguistics, I have been impressed by the consistent quality, breadth, and liveliness of its articles and reviews. JL neither specializes in one branch of linguistic theory to the neglect of others nor presents a single theoretical face to the world.' Larry Horn, Yale University

Surveys and Studies

Editor

Graeme Porte, University of Granada, Spain

Language Teaching is the essential research resource for language professionals providing a rich and expert overview of research in the field of second-language teaching and learning. It offers survey articles on specific topics, languages and countries, and invites original research articles reporting on replication studies and meta-analyses. The journal also includes regional surveys of doctoral dissertations, topic-based research timelines and articles based on plenary conference speeches. Research-in-progress reports, themed book review articles and a list of publications received complement the content of each issue. A thorough peer-reviewing procedure applies to both the commissioned and the unsolicited articles. Language Teaching is also included in the all-time favourite Annual Review of Research.

Phonology

Editors

Colin J. Ewen, University of Leiden

Ellen M. Kaisse, University of Washington

Phonology, published three times a year, is the only journal devoted exclusively to the discipline, and provides a unique forum for the productive interchange of ideas among phonologists and those working in related disciplines.

Preference is given to papers which make a substantial theoretical contribution, irrespective of the particular theoretical framework employed, but the submission of papers presenting new empirical data of general theoretical interest is also encouraged.

The journal carries research articles, as well as book reviews and shorter pieces on topics of current controversy within phonology.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

English Language & Linguistics (ELL) uses the ScholarOne manuscript management system for handling submissions. Please follow ELL's Instructions for Contributors, which are available through the following link: <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/elangling>.

General enquiries can be sent to ELL's editors using this email address: ellsubmissions@cambridge.org.

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication elsewhere.

International Society for the Linguistics of English (ISLE)

ELL is the journal associated with ISLE, the International Society for the Linguistics of English. The central aim of ISLE is to promote the study of the English language, that is, the study of the structure, history and use of standard and non-standard varieties of English, in terms of both form and function, at an international level. The society aims to provide a geographically and theoretically neutral central contact point for all those who are academically active and who identify with this aim. Members of ISLE are eligible for a discount subscription to ELL. For information on ISLE conferences, other ISLE activities, and how to become a member, visit www.isle-linguistics.org.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
