Books and Journals from
Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

THE BRITISH SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE

Membership of the Society, which includes a subscription to The British Journal for the History of Science, is open to all persons approved by the Council of the Society and elected at an Extraordinary General Meeting. Details of the annual subscription can be found on our website www.bsbs.org.uk or from the Executive Secretary at the address below. There is an Introductory offer for the first year.

Other BSBS publications: BJHS Themes is a fully open access, peer-reviewed journal for the history of science, which publishes annual thematic collections aimed at animating the history of science community. BJHS Themes is enabled by investment from the Society's Wheeler Bequest in collaboration with Cambridge University Press. Themes collections consist of insightful, original and timely studies that hit the historiographical moment. Articles are free to read online for all. Typically, issues are chosen through an open, annual competition.

Past issues:

BJHS Themes (2016) 1, 'Intersections: Science and Technology in Twentieth Century China and India', edited by Jahnvi Phalkey and Tong Lam.

BJHS Themes (2017) 2, 'Animal Agents: the Non-Human in the History of Science', edited by Amanda Rees.

BJHS Themes (2018), 3, 'Worlds of Science for Children and Young People, 1830-1991', edited by Isabel Zilhão and Kristian H. Nielsen.

BJHS Themes (2019), 4, 'How Collections End', edited by Boris Jardine, Emma Kowal and Jenny Bangham.

The Society's magazine, Viewpoint, an informal publication, appears three times a year. It is free to members, £12.00 for institutions and UK non-members, £17.00 for overseas non-members from the Executive Secretary.

Administrative business of the Society is handled by Lucy Santos, Executive Secretary, British Society for the History of Science. The Society is registered in England as a Limited Company (No. 562208) and is a Registered Charity (No. 258854). Email office@bsbs.org.uk.

Information about the Society is available through the Internet: <http://www.bsbs.org.uk>
