Journal for General Philosophy of Science

Zeitschrift für allgemeine Wissenschaftstheorie

Editors:

Lutz Geldsetzer, Philosophisches Institut der Universität Düsseldorf, Germany, Gert König, Institut für Philosophie der Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Bochum, Germany

The Journal for General Philosophy of Science/Zeitschrift für allgemeine Wissenschaftstheorie is a forum for the discussion of a variety of attitudes concerning the philosophy of science. It has as its subject matter the philosophical, especially methodological, ontological, epistemological, anthropological, and ethical foundations of the individual sciences. Particular emphasis is laid on bringing both the natural, the cultural, and the technical sciences into a philosophical context, within which the historical presuppositions and conditions of the current problems of the philosophy of science are also included in the discussion.

The Journal for General Philosophy of Science/Zeitschrift für allgemeine Wissenschaftstheorie has already been in existence for over two decades. It has been successful in its attempt to serve as a forum that bridges the gap between the different sciences, especially the natural, cultural, and social sciences. One of its purposes is to discuss and contrast the common as well as the different specific methodological and philosophical foundations of the individual sciences, taking into account all currently relevant positions of the philosophy of science.

In recent years considerable insight has been gained into the problems of current philosophy of science by considering the historical dimension of the sciences. This is why more intensive efforts will be made in the future towards the integration of historical and systematic considerations.

CLIO MEDICA

Vol. 22 — Essays in the History of Therapeutics. Edited by W.F. Bynum and V. Nutton. Amsterdam/Atlanta, GA 1991. 146 pp.

ISBN: 90-5183-266-4

Hfl. 65,—/US-$ 32.50

The history of therapeutics has been central to the medical enterprise in all times and all places. It is also, as Guenter Risse points out in his introductory essay, a subject which is all too often neglected by historians. He analyses some of the reasons for this and urges historians to take this complex and important theme more seriously. The essays which follow range in chronology from antiquity to the 1980s and in geography from the Mediterranean Basin to the New World. They touch on such matters as diet and drugs, magic and surgery, orthodox and unorthodox approaches. What they share is an attempt to get beyond the easy dismissal of almost all therapeutics before the twentieth century as meaningless and harmful and to examine concrete dimensions of the therapeutic encounter in its social, professional, religious and scientific reverberations.

Contents: Guenter B. Risse: The History of Therapeutics. Vivian Nutton: From Medical Certainty to Medical Amulets: Three Aspects of Ancient Therapeutics. Luis Garcia-Ballester: Dietetic and Pharmacological Therapy: A Dilemma among Fourteenth-Century Jewish Practitioners in the Montpellier Area. Christa Habrich: Characteristic Features of Eighteenth-Century Therapeutics in Germany. Renate Wittern: The Origins of Homoeopathy in Germany. John Harley Warner: Science, Healing and the Physician's Identity: A Problem of Professional Character in Nineteenth-Century America. Ulrich Tröhler: 'To Operate or not to Operate?' Scientific and Extraneous Factors in Therapeutical Controversies within the Swiss Society of Surgery 1913-1988.
