Making Literature Matter An Anthology for Readers and Writers Fifth Edition

John Schilb, Indiana University

John Clifford, University of North Carolina at Wilmington

In its fifth edition, Making Literature Matter continues to deliver on the promise of its title. Its thematic anthology gathers memorable stories, poems, plays, and essays into unique literary clusters addressing issues that rouse passionate responses in students. At the same time, its comprehensive rhetoric shows students how to harness those responses into thoughtful arguments about the issues raised by the clusters and the literature.

“Making Literature Matter does what it says—literature suddenly becomes relevant to students’ own lives.”

— Brenton Phillips, Cloud County Community College

Jump right in ... the literature’s fine

THE POET'S FREEDOM

A Notebook on Making

Susan Stewart

Why do we need new art? How free is the artist in making? And why is the artist a figure of freedom in Western culture? Poet and critic Susan Stewart ponders these questions in The Poet's Freedom.

"Scholarly yet maverick, patiently constructed yet risk-taking, her work constantly surprises."—John Kinsella, Guardian

PAPER $22.50

PROUST AMONG THE NATIONS

From Dreyfus to the Middle East

Jacqueline Rose

"Rose's brilliant achievement in her new book is to argue knowledgeably and persuasively for the relevance that reading Proust and Freud has to the violent antagonism opposing Jews and Arabs in the Middle East. This is a compelling work that will provoke much debate."—Leo Bersani, University of California, Berkeley

CLOTH $35.00

CRUELTY AND LAUGHTER

Forgotten Comic Literature and the Unsentimental Eighteenth Century

Simon Dickie

"With great verve, occasional disgust, and intermittent outrage, Simon Dickie portrays a society of entrenched hierarchies. . . . One of the most original, readable, educational, and entertaining books in the field of eighteenth-century studies I have read in the past decade."—Helen Deutsch, University of California, Los Angeles

CLOTH $45.00

ENLIGHTENMENT ORIENTALISM

Resisting the Rise of the Novel

Srinivas Aravamudan

"With flair and fascination, Srinivas Aravamudan intervenes in a growing debate about the complex role played by the configuration of Orientalist 'knowledges'—fictional, phantasmatic, political, moral—in the sage archive of the Enlightenment."—Homi K. Bhabha, Harvard University

PAPER $29.00

MAKING AND UNMAKING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Creative Production in Legal and Cultural Perspective

Edited by Mario Biagioli, Peter Jaszi, and Martha Woodmansee

"Here's a simple prayer: Let no new law regarding 'intellectual property' be passed until all legislators have absorbed the treasures contained in this wonderful collection of essays."—Lewis Hyde, Kenyon College

PAPER $40.00

Now in Paperback

SHAKESPEARE ONLY

Jeffrey Knapp

"Shakespeare Only is a decisive and brilliant advance in our understanding of Shakespeare and of his literary culture. . . . Knapp provides a remarkable, deeply compelling account of Shakespeare's own strangely paradoxical conception of authorship."

—Stephen Greenblatt
