

NEW AND SUSPENDED PERIODICALS

Agrícolas

Published three times yearly by the Comisión Brasileña de Bibliotecarios Agrícolas, affiliated to the Asociación Interamericana de Bibliotecarios y Documentalistas Agrícolas. Original articles, news and bibliographical sections will be featured. This journal will be financed entirely by subscriptions and advertisements. Annual rates within Brazil for individual subscribers are NCR $3.00 and for institutions NCR $10.00. Outside Brazil annual rate for individuals is $1.00 and for institutions $4.00. Correspondence and subscriptions may be addressed to: Srta. Angela Maria Lyra Porto, Biblioteca Central, EPE. Rua Jardim Botânico, 1,024 Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

AIFLD Review / Revista del LADSL

Published quarterly in English and Spanish editions by the American Institute for Free Labor Development, this combines the former Lecturas Sindicales and Books for Unionists which have been merged in a single format. The first issue appeared in 1969. It contains, in digest form, articles on trade union topics and on social, economic and international problems of interest to workers, with a section on recent books. Information can be obtained from the Executive Director, William C. Doherty Jr. or the Editor Juan M. Yanes, AIFLD, 1925 K. Street, Washington, D.C. 20006.

Boletín Informativo de Ciencia Política

Seminario de la primera cátedra de Teoría del Estado y Derecho Constitucional, Facultad de Ciencias Políticas y Económicas, Ciudad Universitaria, Madrid 4. Primer número: Junio 1969, Director: Carlos Ollero. Contains book reviews, bibliographical news, sections on current research and topical articles, and lists articles of interest in other journals.

Desarrollo Administrativo

Published by the Instituto de Estudios Administrativos, Universidad Central, Quito, Ecuador. Quarterly. Vol. I No. I. appeared in February 1969. Contains studies of administrative problems of public and private sectors and discussions of legislative projects. Address for correspondence: Instituto de Estudios Administrativos, Universidad de Ecuador, Apartado 3474, Quito, Ecuador.

Desarrollo Rural en las Américas

Will replace and widen the scope of 'Extension en las Americas.' Published 3 times a year, in April, August and December. Editor is Fernando Monge. Annual subscription U.S. $4.00, for two years: $7.00. Articles on rural development with summaries in English and bibliographies will be included. The purpose of this journal is to provide a forum for discussion of the problems of development, with special emphasis on Latin America; articles referring to other geographical areas of the world will also be accepted. It is published by IICA-CIRA. (Instituto Interamericano de Ciencias Agrícolas de la OEA, and the Centro Interamericano de Desarrollo Rural y Reforma Agraria), Apartado Aéreo 14592, Bogotá, Colombia.

Estudios Andinos

See Institutional News Section. Published 3 times yearly by the Instituto Boliviano de Estudio y Acción Social, Casilla 3277, Avenida Arce 2147, La Paz, Bolivia.

The Inter American Scene

Published by LAMA (Language Americas Association), first number appeared in July 1969, editor in chief is Robert G. Hoag. It contains short articles on travel, tourism and matters of general interest intended for readers unfamiliar with Latin America. The object of the publication is to 'overcome the lack of people-to-people understanding within the inter-American community.' Further information from: Eric Black, LAMA, 1250 National Press Building, Washington, D.C. 20004.

Land Reform: Land settlement and cooperatives

Published by the Rural Institutions Division, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United States. First appeared in 1969 and it will be issued twice yearly in English, French and Spanish. H. Meliczek is editor. This journal is intended to be a medium for the dissemination of information and ideas on land reform and related subjects. It contains articles, news from the field, recommendations, discussion and basic legislation and recent publications. Further information from the editor, Via delle Terme di Caracalla, 00100, Rome, Italy.

Specialia

A multi-disciplinary journal published with the co-sponsorship of the Latin American Institute, Southern Illinois University. The first issue, which appeared at the end of 1969, contained 12 articles under the general theme of Interamericana. The second issue of this occasional publication will present a series of articles for the Ruben Darío centenary. Primary purpose is to make available and keep in print key publications and to use multi disciplinary contributions which have no outlet at present. Library subscriptions for the next 10 issues cost $40, there are reduced rates for individuals. Contributions and correspondence to: A. W. Bork, Editor and Charles Ekker, Managing Editor, Latin American Institute, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois 62901.

World List of Future International Meetings

This publication will be discontinued after the September 1969 issue.

LIBRARIES AND ARCHIVES

The Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center of the Office of External Research, U.S. Department of State, published in July 1969 Special Papers Available: Latin America which lists all papers received during the last four years. It is preceded by an outline of "research needs" prepared by the Subcommittee on Latin America of the Foreign Affairs Research Coordination Group. The center would appreciate any contributions of papers prepared by Latin Americanists. Address these to: Miss Idris Rossell, Chief, Academic Research Documentation Division, Office of External Research, Department of State, Washington, D.C. 20520.

The Foreign Area Materials Center in New York has prepared lists of current holdings in several areas of study. Requests should be made to the Institute at 866, United Nations Plaza, New York, N. Y. 10017 or to 1346 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. Washington, D. C. 20036.

The Hispanic Foundation of the Library of Congress plans publication of the revised edition of the National Directory of Latin Americanists for Spring 1970.

Since 1961, the Survey Research Center, in association with the Institute of International Studies has been developing the International Data Library and Reference Service. This is designed to assist social scientists in obtaining, processing and analysing existing materials, with special emphasis on Asia and Latin America. Materials collected include codes, questionnaires and data